

B.C.'s First Citizen Leads in Tribute

First to lay a wreath at Parliament Square Remembrance Day service Thursday was Lieutenant-Governor Clarence Wallace, CBE. He was followed by representatives of the armed services, bereaved mothers, Canadian Legion, and many private individuals, who turned out under threatening skies to attend the 23-year-old ceremonies highlighted by a military-civilian parade unmatched for size in Victoria on past Remembrance Days. 126,853 IMMIGRANTS IN FIRST 9 MONTHS

OTTAWA (CP)—Immigrants arriving in Canada in the first nine months of this year slightly outnumbered newcomers in the same period of 1953.

The immigration department announced today the 1954 figure was 126,853, compared with 125,098, an increase of about 1 per cent.

The largest contingent—36,111—came from the British Isles. British Columbia was the destination of 9,645 of the immigrants.

SPCA CALLS 'FOWL'

Bat-Swinging Hen Ruled Underweight

Operators of a display on view at the Hudson's Bay Company store today were ordered by the SPCA, Victoria branch, to remove one of four hens from a display because it was underweight.

Robin Dunsmuir, SPCA president, took a poultry inspector to the store to examine the display, that consists of hens tripping a trigger that causes a baseball bat to hit a ball. If the ball travels the full length of the miniature baseball "diamond," another switch is closed and a device drops a few grains of corn within reach of the hen.

Although only one hen is on view at a time, four hens are trained to operate the gadget, and are known to the public as "Casey at the Bat."

"Feed it," Mr. Dunsmuir ordered after having seen the one hen he considered somewhat peaked in appearance.

"These hens are starved for 24 hours before being put on display so they will perform," Mr. Dunsmuir said.

"What they do is tug at a little rubber worm on the bat that operates the switch," he said. "If the ball is knocked for a home run, they have to run down the cage for a few kernels of corn."

"It's frustrating for them," he said.

The display is one of hundreds prepared by a United States firm for rental to advertisers. It has been on view here since Saturday.

Keep Out of Politics Peron Warns Priests

BUENOS AIRES (Reuters)—The Bishop of Santa Fe, Monsignor Nicolas Fassolino, left here for Rome today 24 hours after Argentine President Juan Peron accused him and other prelates of political intrigue.

Peron warned Catholic priests Wednesday night to keep out of politics and threatened to close down the Argentine section of the world-wide organization Catholic Action "unless it sticks to its avowed aims."

3,000 Victorians At Cenotaph Rites

Beneath leaden skies Thursday Victorians mourned their dead of two World wars and the Korea conflict.

Three thousand braved chilling winds and rain squalls to pay their respects in traditional rites at the Cenotaph in Parliament Square.

Five other Services of Remembrance were held during the day—at Esquimalt Cenotaph, attended by 600; at the Canadian Scottish memorial in Pioneer Square; at Oak Bay's Cenotaph in Uplands Park; at Royal Canadian Navy's HMCS Venture school for officer-cadets; and in the Roman Catholic cathedral, St. Andrew's.

There also was a special service in Christ Church Cathedral.

Taking part in the Cenotaph service, arranged by Canadian Legion, were old and young veterans (with the former predominating) and detachments from navy, army and air force units here, together with a platoon of RCMP constables and army, navy and air force cadets and Boy Scouts.

HMCS Naden band headed the procession and provided the music for the hymns sung during the rites.

The half-hour memorial service included a lament played by Pipe-Major A. Pollock and members of the Canadian Scottish (Princess Mary's) regimental band.

Rev. Canon F. E. M. Tomalin, former RCAF chaplain and now minister of St. Matthias Church, led the prayers, and Helen Wilson led the singing of hymns.

Wreaths were laid at the base of the monument after "The Last Post" was sounded and the National Anthem sung. Placing a wreath on behalf of the Queen was Lieutenant-Governor Wallace; on behalf of the government, Hon. Ray Williston, minister of education, and for the city, the mayor.

Representatives of civil and service groups followed with their commemorative wreaths before the Naden band played "The Queen" and the lieutenant-governor's party left for the saluting dais in front of the Empress Hotel.

On the stand with him were Rear Admiral J. C. Hibbard, flag officer Pacific coast; Mr. Williston, Col. R. B. Longridge, Canadian Legion zone commander, and Col. J. C. Cave, officer commanding Esquimalt Garrison.

Ottawa Will Welcome Queen Mother Tonight

OTTAWA (CP)—After an absence of 15½ years, Queen Mother Elizabeth comes back to Ottawa tonight for a five-day visit.

Last in Canada with the late King George VI during the 1939 royal tour, the Queen Mother is coming here for an "informal" visit, though there will be guards of honor, state dinner and protocol aplenty.

In recent days, the Parliament Buildings have been housecleaned and prettied up outside with flags and bunting. There have been comings and goings at Government House, where the Queen Mother will stay as the guest of Governor-General Massey.

Her Majesty is scheduled to leave Langley Field, Va., at 11:45 a.m. PST today by RCAF C-54 luxury airliner. Accompanying her will be State Secretary Roch Pinard and Mrs. Pinard, Lionel Massey, secretary to the governor-general, W. P. J. O'Meara, acting undersecretary of state, and Inspector J. J. Thornton of the RCMP.

At Uplands airport, the Queen Mother will be welcomed by the governor-general and Prime Minister and Mrs. St. Laurent, who will present a bouquet of flowers.

The Queen Mother has a full schedule Saturday. She will place a wreath on the National War Memorial, unveiled by her husband in 1939, meet veterans' representatives and have lunch in the Parliament Buildings.

Addresses of welcome will be made by Senate Speaker Wishart, Speaker Robertson and Commons Speaker Rene Beaudoin after the luncheon in the parliamentary restaurant. Her Majesty will reply. It is the only speech she is scheduled to make during her visit.

That evening there will be a state dinner at Government House. About 100 guests will attend the winner and 340 the reception afterwards.

See where th' French Prime Minister prefers milk 't drink. Hope it don't go Saar on him.

Now its Andy Carnegie's will th'et's holdin' up th' library settlement. But it's a happy day fer th' city fathers. They've found another reason why it's impossible 't do somethin'.

18-YEAR IRON-LUNGER FRED SNITE DIES AT 44

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UP)—Fred B. Snite Jr., the cheerful "boiler kid" who lived more than 18 years in an iron lung, died in his sleep today while resting from a bridge game in the annual Florida State Championships Tournament.

He was 44.

Stricken by polio in China in 1936, Snite was married in 1939. His first daughter was born a year later. Other children have been added to the family since then.

Snite christened himself "de boiler kid." He made light of his steel "prison," and formerly mailed Christmas cards showing him in an iron lung plastered with travel-stickers from his world-wide travels.

It was on April 1, 1936, when only 26, that Snite was placed in a respirator at Peiping, China. He was stricken while on a world tour with his parents. His father, a wealthy manufacturer, expended $50,000 to bring him back to the States alive in a cumbersome respirator.

Adenauer Faces Cabinet Revolt On Rearmament

Further Study
By Commission

BONN, Germany (UP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's rebellious coalition cabinet refused today to approve the German rearmament agreements negotiated recently in Paris.

The deadlocked cabinet referred the measures—including the highly controversial agreement on the coal-rich Saarland border area—to a five-man cabinet commission for further study.

The deadlock developed suddenly and unexpectedly.

Adenauer had called his cabinet together to approve bills which were to have been submitted to the West German parliament for ratification of the measures which would restore German sovereignty, make her a member of a new west European union and rearm 500,000 West Germans for the west's defense against Communist aggression.

The cabinet ministers balked. Disagreement on the measures was feared likely to upset Adenauer's time-table for ratification which had called for the measures to be placed before the Bundesrat (upper house) for study next week and submitted to the Bundestag (lower house) for first reading and debate Dec. 16.

Turned Down By Socialists

PARIS (Reuters)—Socialist participation in Pierre Mendes-France's government in the immediate future was ruled out today after Socialist party secretary Guy Mollet presented the premier with his party's stiff terms for joining the cabinet.

Mollet notified Mendes-France of the decision taken at Thursday's Socialist congress during a 30-minute meeting with the premier. The extraordinary party congress ruled that Socialists would take the six cabinet posts offered to them only if the premier accepted a full Socialist program.

Mendes-France told reporters after his meeting with Mollet that he will announce a reshuffle of his cabinet later today, but that no Socialists will be included. The shuffle is expected to be minor.

The Socialist refusal to participate is seen here as one of the biggest blows to the government since it took office last June. Mendes-France had hoped to make sweeping changes, dramatically strengthening his government before his departure. Saturday for the United States and Canada.

PARIS (Reuters)—Police clashed with 4,000 civil servants who massed in the Place de l'Opera in the centre of Paris today to demand higher pay.

Has Meningitis

Progressive Conservative leader George Drew is suffering from an attack of meningitis but his recovery will be complete, party headquarters in Ottawa announced today. The 60-year-old politician was taken to hospital Thursday believed suffering from virus pneumonia. Party headquarters said laboratory tests have confirmed a diagnosis of meningococcus meningitis. Meanwhile Mr. Drew's engagements have been canceled for the next month, which means he will be unable to keep his scheduled speaking engagement in Victoria Dec. 3.

Two Crossword Fans Split Record High Prize of $425

Two residents of southern Vancouver Island are better off to the extent of $212.50 each today as the result of submitting winning solutions in the Times weekly crossword contest.

They are:
Hugh W. R. Lindsay, Cordova Bay;
Mrs. M. Hunter, Jordan River.

They came up with perfect answers to puzzle No. 85 after crossworders had been trying for 14 weeks without success.

Full bonus prize for the puzzle was $425. Since both Mr. Lindsay and Mrs. Hunter are regular subscribers they divide the prize equally.

At press time Mrs. Hunter did not know she had won. She left her Jordan River home this morning for a shopping trip to Victoria and was not home when the Times phoned her.

Mr. Lindsay, a steam-fitter by trade, called it "just about the best news I've ever got at one time during my life."

He's been a crossword fan since the Times started the weekly puzzle more than a year and a half ago. Mr. Lindsay lives in a home he built himself off Sayward Road, Cordova Bay.

The $425 prize was an all-time high for the puzzle, and the number of entries as a result also established a record.

LONDON (Reuters)—Wild winds sweeping over Britain killed three persons, turned rivers into raging torrents and drove offshore shipping to shelter Thursday night and early today.

The wind reached hurricane force of 103 miles an hour around the rocky coast of the Orkney Islands off the far north of Scotland, and most parts of northern Scotland and northern Ireland had fierce gales.

Tidal warnings were issued along the coast of Lincolnshire in northeast England, where 300 persons were killed and 12,000 made homeless in Britain's worst floods two years ago. Police and emergency services stood by as the North Sea rose three feet above its expected level.

Floods caused the death of three persons trapped when their car was overturned by on-rushing water at a flooded ford near Lancaster.

Off the west coast, the 6,145-ton American cargo ship Magnolia State found shelter from stormy seas in Moelfre Bay. Eight vessels ranging from 300 to 1,000 tons took shelter in Torbay from English Channel gales.

Inland, the gales brought heavy winds and driving rain coupled with the highest tide in 30 years forced the Humber and Hull Rivers out of their banks and across Hull. Waves two feet high swept along roads and into houses and factories as hastily erected sandbag defenses were washed away from the river banks.

No casualties were reported. Trucks and rowboats ferried people through the flooded streets but thousands were unable to get to work and many housewives were unable to get out to the shops.

Farther north, the port cities clustered around the Tyne and Clyde Rivers reported abnormally heavy rain and racing river waters.

Quebec 'Sweep Race' Cancelled

MANCHESTER, England (AP)—The Manchester November Handicap, final race of the English flat season, was cancelled today because of continued heavy rain.

The 1½-mile race was scheduled for Saturday. All bets on the race are void. Until several years ago an Irish sweepstakes was based on the November Handicap. Cancellations because of fog and rain switched the sweeps to the Cambridge, which is run in October in Newmarket.

4 Albertans Die In Murder-Suicide

MUNDARE, Alta. (CP)—Police have described the fatal Remembrance Day shooting of four persons as murder-suicide resulting from a family quarrel over "religious and marital difficulties." One person was wounded.

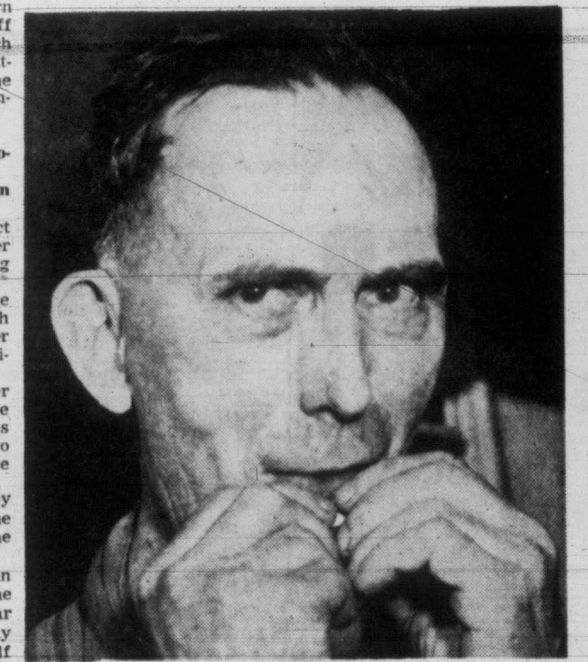

RCMP said Nick Lysakowsky, a 43-year-old movie exhibitor, shot himself to death after returning from an early-morning car trip during which he killed his parents-in-law and his teenage stepdaughter. His estranged wife was wounded.

Dead are Mr. and Mrs. John Bably, both in their 70s, and 16-year-old Susan Sadowski, a high school student.

Mary Sadowski, 43, is in "fairly good" condition in Edmonton hospital, 50 miles west of here. The woman separated from Lysakowsky in August after two months of marriage and reverted to the name of her husband by a previous marriage.

The death pattern as given by neighbors showed Lysakowsky intercepted Mary Sadowski while she was on her way to work in a nearby convent. He shot her three times and drove to the Bably home, where his wife lived, and shot Mr. and Mrs. Bably and Susan.

Lysakowsky, whose first wife died a year ago, returned home, telephoned the local police about what happened, and ended his life with the same revolver after ordering his 16-year-old son from the house.

JUST for the RECORD

DOGGONE! In London a thief posing as a plumber was greeted by Mrs. Ruth Osborne's two poodles as he walked up the stairs of her house Thursday.

The maid who let the impostor in said the friendly dogs—Susie and Simone—lifted their paws and the "plumber" gravely shook them.

He then proceeded to Mrs. Osborne's bedroom and filched a box containing jewels worth $3,500.

He came downstairs, shook the poodles' paws a second time and departed with the loot.

FORGOTTEN: In Pawtucket, R.I., everything seemed to be going smoothly along the Veterans' Day parade route Thursday—until the marchers got to city hall. Then they realized there was no reviewing stand and no officials to review the parade.

City officials said they had not been invited.

CHANGING TIMES: In Stringtown, Okla., Turner Bear, full-blooded Cree Indian, bagged a 10-point, 124-pound buck deer near here Thursday.

Asked whether he used a bow and arrow, as many hunters are doing, or a rifle, he replied: "Indian use 30-30 rifle, bow and arrow for white man."

State of Murder Room Following Slaying Recounted by Witness in Sheppard Case

By ROBERT JAIN

CLEVELAND (UP) — Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard's theory that an intruder bludgeoned his wife to death as she slept last July 4 received a point-by-point setback today from a Bay Village policeman whom Sheppard had called "a friend I can trust."

Patrolman Fred Drenkhan, under direct prosecution questioning for the second day, testified that:

Two of the three windows in the murder bedroom were locked.

Screens on all three windows were latched from the inside.

A window shade on the only open window was pulled down except for "about three inches."

There was no evidence of entrance into the murder bedroom from any of the three windows.

Drenkhan was the first police officer at the scene. He was summoned by Bay Village Mayor J. Spencer Hook, who answered Sheppard's telephone call to "come over quick—something's happened to Marilyn."

Sheppard has contended the bludgeoning was committed by a "bushy-haired" intruder who knocked the 30-year-old osteopath unconscious when he answered his wife's cries for help. Later, Sheppard said, he chased the man to the Lake Erie beach and was knocked unconscious again.

Defense questioning earlier this week exploded the possibility an intruder could have entered the murder room by climbing an apple tree outside the bedroom window.

Drenkhan slowly and deliberately checked off the events of the morning the crime was discovered. He described the upstairs bedroom, and the preliminary investigation he made. Drenkhan said blood spattered all four walls of the bedroom.

He said the covers on the other twin bed adjacent to where Mrs. Sheppard lay were turned back, but that there was no sign anyone had slept in it. There were blood flecks on the covers, he said.

Drenkhan said he found no evidence of a struggle in the room.

Downstairs, Drenkhan said, drawers from a desk had been opened and overturned. A medical case owned by Sheppard lay on its side, the contents strewn on the floor.

Drenkhan and Sheppard became acquainted through the osteopath's unofficial capacity as police surgeon. After the crime, when Sheppard was at his Bay View Hospital for treatment of injuries he said he received from the intruder, he specified that Drenkhan accompany any investigators who questioned him.

"He is a friend I can trust," Sheppard said.

Drenkhan was the sixth state witness. After his cross-exam-

JOSANNE

MARLON WAS NOT HAPPY

Brando's Sweetheart On Television Sunday

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY

NEW YORK (UP)—Josanne Mariani, the unknown French girl who won Marlon Brando's heart, leaves today for Hollywood to make her television debut, but only after getting Brando's reluctant consent.

She promised the actor, in a lengthy exchange of cables between Brooklyn and Italy, where Brando is now staying, that she would accept no more offers for appearances until he comes back.

This was her first interview since she arrived from France, where her mother and stepfather, a fisherman named Paul Berenger, announced Josanne's engagement to Brando two weeks ago.

Josanne will be introduced Sunday night on the Colgate comedy hour. She was studying acting when she met Brando in dramatic class at Stella Adler's school here. But her TV debut will be only a short conversation with Gordon MacCrae, the singing star of the show, about music popular in France. She will be paid $1,000.

"It sounded nice, so I said all right," Josanne said. She is self-conscious about her French accent, and makes a wry face when she realizes she has pronounced a word incorrectly.

To Josanne, Brando is a considerate, lovable guy who'll make a wonderful husband. He gave her the inexpensive fur- quise ring she was wearing on her engagement finger, though she says it is not her engagement ring, and a pair of earrings she plans to wear for good luck on Sunday night. She says they have set no wedding date.

The girl Brando plans to marry is shy and solemn with strangers, one of the qualities that first attracted Marlon, and generous and loyal to her friends. She wants to be an actress, an American citizen, and most of all, to look older than 19.

"I wish I were older," she sighed. "There must be something wrong with me to say that, no?"

ination he was expected to be succeeded by Bay Village Police Chief John Eaton.

One of the state's key witnesses, Dr. Lester Hoversten, prepared to tell for the first time in court of "other women" in Sheppard's life.

$50,000 Pub Open Saturday: City's Second

300 Seats in Yates St. Parlor

Victoria's second beer parlor opens Saturday morning at 10.30 in the King's Hotel, 570 Yates Street.

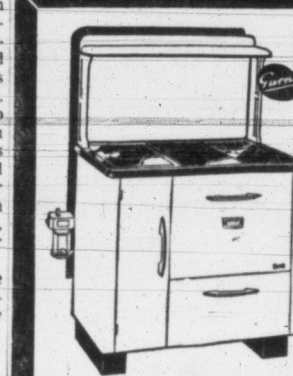

Alterations to the main floor of the building to provide for the serving of beer by the glass were made by Paine & Townsend. The job and furnishings have cost in the neighborhood of $50,000.

The new pub has a floor area of about 5,000 square feet and has accommodation for about 300 persons. The women's side is carpeted and has light green upholstered chairs. The men's section has red leather chrome chairs.

Victoria's first pub was the one now operating in the Drake Hotel, 1405 Store Street. Citizens voted in favor of beer parlors in the city in the plebiscite held April 28.

Jack Admas is proprietor of King's Hotel and Cy Mulholland manager. Jack Aldridge, formerly of Colwood, will be the head barman.

McCARTHY WON'T APOLOGIZE

Plan to Head Off Censure Stalled by Obdurate Joe

WASHINGTON (UP)—A compromise plan for ending the censure dispute collapsed today because Sen. Joseph B. McCarthy refused to apologize for "abusing" a 1951-52 elections subcommittee.

Sen. Francis Case (R-S.D.), a member of the Watkins censure committee, said Thursday night that McCarthy could kill the charges against him by apologizing for his attacks on the elections subcommittee and one of its members, Sen. Robert C. Hendrickson (R-N.J.).

But McCarthy stood his ground as the historic Senate debate moved into its third day, with Sen. Frank Carlson (R-Kan.) listed as the probable first speaker. Like Case, Carlson is a member of the censure committee.

New YWCA Club Plans Fortnightly Dances
A new club, the "VYDAS" Club, has been formed at the YWCA.

Deriving its name from the Victoria YWCA Dance and Social Club, it will hold dances for members every second Friday with the Greg Keetch orchestra in attendance.

An organizational meeting will be held in the YWCA building, corner of Blanshard and Courtney, at 7.30 p.m., Monday. Information concerning the group may be had by phoning the YWCA at 4-7179.

Friends said today that McCarthy might consider backtracking somewhat on his statement that Hendrickson is a "living miracle... with neither brains nor guts." He said Thursday that "Bob and I are good friends."

But McCarthy flatly refused to take back his charges that the elections subcommittee, which investigated his fiancée, was "completely dishonest" and engaged in "picking the pockets of the taxpayers." He said "I see nothing that would have been done differently if I were doing it today."

This shot holes in Case's plan. With an apology, Case said the senate would both praise and gently blame McCarthy without actually censuring him.

the subcommittee and its members. He said it could "disavow" his alleged abuse of Brig-Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker—second part of the censure resolution—and then wind up the special session quickly by adopting four senate rule changes recommended by the censure committee.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) said meanwhile that the pro-McCarthy forces have worked out another compromise plan which they will present to the senate later. Although he declined to reveal details, informed sources indicated it would both praise and gently blame McCarthy without actually censuring him.

Viet Minh Threatens To Sink Mercy Ship

1,800 of 4,000 Indo-China Refugees Rescued From Crumbling Sandbank

SAIGON, Indo-China (UP)—The Communist Viet Minh threatened today to fire on French mercy ships entering Communist waters to pick up Indo-Chinese refugees stranded on a crumbling sand bank, but French sources said an aircraft carrier already had saved 1,800.

The carrier Bois Belleau, formerly the U.S.S. Belleau Wood, arrived with 1,800 Catholic refugees saved from almost certain death on the River Tra-Ly sandbanks, 30 miles south of French-held Haiphong in Communist North Viet Nam.

It was uncertain here how many refugees remained on the sandbank which is being eaten away by each tide. The original report from Hanoi said 4,000 persons were stranded there when they fled Communist persecution and tried to escape by sea.

Official French sources said French warships which had been reported "cruising helplessly" outside Red territory were ordered to return to Saigon and to Haiphong. Haiphong has been a staging area for the thousands of refugees fleeing to free South Viet Nam.

The Communist threat to fire on French warships entering Communist territorial waters was made to the International Armistice Control Commission which recommended the French ships pick up the refugees, official French sources reported.

Boxer Arrested
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Welterweight boxing contender Ramon Fuentes, who has a non-title bout here Dec. 2 with champion Johnny Saxton, was arrested Thursday for assault. German Orenas, 28, complained the boxer struck him without provocation after he offered him a drink at a bar. Orenas was treated for an injured nose.

Fuentes, 27, said someone else struck the blow.

He was recently re-elected president of the Kiwanis Village project for senior citizens, and will continue in this post. Mr. Mallek has been a Kiwanis member for 20 years, is a past director, and was the instigator of the Kiwanis junior safety patrols.

"I am prouder of this project than any other I've ever been associated with," he said.

Mr. Mallek expects the village to be complete by December 15, "but there will still be plenty of work to do."

In Vancouver, he hopes to expand his business interests, not necessarily in the ladies' wear field. "I hate to leave Victoria," he said, "but Vancouver is growing so fast it presents more opportunities."

Mr. Mallek, 44, is married and has two daughters, Carol, 16, and Lorelee, 14.

Mrs. Mallek has also been prominent in community work. A former professional dietitian, she was a volunteer welfare worker here for some years, and for two years was president of the Victoria Branch, Victorian Order of Nurses.

Seedling Trees Distributed in Nanaimo School
NANAIMO—Grade 1 pupils at Princess Anne School here each received a tiny evergreen tree at a ceremony held at 2:30 p.m. today.

Donor of the trees was the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association, Western Division, which will follow the Nanaimo presentation with the distribution of seedlings to all other Grade 1 students on Vancouver Island exclusive of Victoria.

This season will mark the eighth year that the association has given the trees to youngsters starting school. With each tree goes a certificate bearing the child's name, and a message to "Be Kind to Little Trees."

"The seedling tree is given with the hope that it will stimulate in children and adults alike a personal and growing interest in the importance of our forest resources from which is derived over 50 cents of every British Columbia dollar," the association states on the certificate.

CCL Urges Tax Cuts

Reports of Relief to Companies Causes Labor Unions 'Dismay'

OTTAWA (BUP)—The 400,000-member Canadian Congress of Labor urged the government today to cut personal income, sales and excise taxes to spark the Canadian economy in more market activity.

The congress said in its annual brief to the cabinet that it was "dismayed" by reports that the government planned to give whatever tax relief it could in the 1955 budget to corporations and to business generally. Such tax relief, the congress said, would only enable business to expand further.

"OBVIOUS" WAY
"What we need is more markets for what the existing plant can produce. The simple and obvious way to provide more internal markets is to cut sales and excise tax, and raise income tax exemptions."

The congress said that "what we ought to do" was to put more money in the hands of consumers. It said a policy of giving tax relief to business was "a policy not to end the recession but to convert it into a depression."

INVESTMENT LAG
"Social investment has lagged," the brief said. "Consumer purchasing power has lagged. Both have to be increased. Public investment and tax-cuts to the mass of the people are the way to overcome both lags."

The CCL brief ranged over a wide field of international and domestic questions as well as dealing with the narrow field of labor relations.

It described the general economic situation in Canada as "decidedly worse than it was a year ago."

HISTORIC CAPITAL
Manila was founded as capital of the Philippines by Spanish colonizers in 1571.

New Bank Opens Monday At Sidney

SIDNEY—New Bank of Montreal building under construction here for the past few months will be opened for business Monday morning.

A one-story structure of concrete blocks and bricks, it is directly across Beacon Avenue from the old bank, and will feature a counter of bronze and glass trim with five tellers' wickets, a reinforced vault for protection against fire and theft, and a coupon booth for customers that use safety deposit facilities.

Manager is G. C. Johnston.

Convictions Quashed in Logging Case

The B.C. Court of Appeal in a recent judgment quashed a conviction against Harold Getson, director of the Falcon Logging Co. Ltd., who was found guilty in lower court of retaining stolen logs over the value of $2,500.

A similar conviction against the logging company was also quashed by the Appeal Court.

The court held there was no proof to show that the logs were stolen from the Kapor Sawmills Ltd. and George Whittaker of Duncan.

George Gregory acted as counsel for the accused.

With Their Pants Afire

THE track walking event has been dropped from the Olympic Games program. This is the result of the International Amateur Athletic Federation discussion in London.

Walking is out because too many countries and too many judges have different interpretations of what can legally be called "walking." Because of this difference of opinion, "walks" always produce squabbles. Some contestants are almost invariably disqualified and the war is on.

So the walk has been struck from the Olympic program and more's the pity.

No other event has the peculiar ability to relax tension in the grandstands. The walk, by long odds, is the best bit of comedy available in topflight athletics.

Not that walkers don't take their event seriously. They do. That's where part of the comedy comes in. Walking as a speed contest is highly technical. Participants must progress, as the definition has it, "by a series of steps so taken that unbroken contact with the ground is maintained, i.e., the advancing foot must make contact with the ground before the rear foot leaves the ground."

BUT DON'T RUN

The manner in which that is accomplished presents a spectacle unrivalled by any other performance.

Walkers in a race look like small boys who, having raised their hands in class, have been released by the teacher and told not to run to the bathroom. The principle is identical. They want to get somewhere quickly and they must "progress by a series of steps so taken that unbroken contact with the ground is maintained."

Now your top-notch walker is usually a tall, angular man with long thin legs. In action he looks something like a stork in a hurry. Because of that continuous contact regulation, he supplements his leg movement with hip contortions and shoulder shrugs that imply he's been covered with itching powder and is too polite to scratch.

Picture his value to an important track meet. The afternoon or evening stretches out with one peak of excitement added to another. Spectators, sitting usually on pretty uncomfortable benches, progress from tension to tension. Their enthusiasm, if the meet is any good, mounts almost to hysteria.

Then out come the walkers. The gun sounds and they start, heel and toe. Going away they present a spectacle irresistibly funny, as one commentator has phrased it, "as if their pants were on fire."

As a release for spectators, it's three times as humorous as far officials chasing the inevitable dog off the track before a big race. But in the interests of international harmony, walking is to be dropped.

WHY SO SERIOUS?

Which brings up a point a few mischievous sports enthusiasts have pondered for a long time. Why can't first-class competitions carry with them an element of intended comedy? Why is so little done for the laughs in major meets. Why not a little nonsense, now and then?

Perhaps it can't be done. Perhaps top-notch sport is the sort of religion some people try to make it. Maybe low comedy would be sacrilege.

Still, it would be kind of fun to see one of the stylishly stout, equipped with waterwings, lining up for the start of an Olympic 100 yards freestyle. It would be relaxing to see a comedy man relieve the seriousness of a springboard competition. And however you figure it, the Canadian marathoner who trotted into the Empire Stadium last August blowing kisses to the ladies, running with his hand at the salute past the Duke of Edinburgh's box and waving his hat to the crowd certainly scored a hit.

Too much levity, though, I guess. And now they've eliminated the walk. Mustn't take our sport too lightly.

YOUR HEALTH

By DR. WALTER C. ALVAREZ

High Blood Pressure

Dr. Alvarez is Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic and Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Foundation.

At the recent meeting of the Second World Congress on Cardiology, Dr. Irvine H. Page, of the Cleveland Clinic, pointed out that today we have several drugs that can lower blood pressure, drugs that work in several ways. For instance, the Rauwolfia drugs seem to quiet centers in the brain. Apresoline affects another part of the nervous system, and seems, also, to inactivate a pressure-raising substance in the blood.

Other drugs, such as hexamethonium and a newer one called pentapaprolidinium, act mainly to quiet the sympathetic nervous system, which when too active can cause spasm in the arteries. The pentapaprolidinium has the advantage that it can be taken by mouth, and its effects last for quite a while.

The only trouble with some of these new and powerful pressure-reducing drugs (not the Rauwolfias) is that they have to be used with great care. Usually the physician has to test their effects on the individual patient while he is in a hospital. He just can not prescribe a box of pills to be taken routinely at home. The drug can make the patient very weak and dizzy, or drowsy. One of them, also, make a man impotent, or it can produce a condition resembling arthritis.

Because of these drawbacks, research pharmacologists are constantly looking for new and safer drugs, drugs that will be easier to administer.

Many maladjusted students at a university get the idea that if they can only take courses in abnormal psychology and psychiatry they can cure themselves. Theoretically, one would think that they should get help, but actually, at a recent meeting of the American Psychological Association, Dr. Eugene S. Mills reported that he had found that about all the poorly adjusted students got out of their courses seemed to be some ability to see what was wrong with them, and some ability to discuss their personal problems.

The fact that their added knowledge did not much help these students in their adjustments to life is interesting, because it shows how tremendously important in most cases is the inborn factor. The boy or girl who is born with a happy, easy-going disposition, and who likes people and meets them easily and makes friends with them easily and adjusts easily to the problems of sex, doesn't need any psychiatric help.

The other type of boy or girl who greatly needs psychiatric help often reacts only slightly to it. He or she tends to remain much the same shy, abnormally worried, or fearful or poorly adjusted person he or she was born to be. I feel most home for the highly intelligent, poorly adjusted child because as he grows up he sees the great importance to him of a good friendly demeanor toward the people about him; and then he struggles hard to overcome his handicap of shyness, and unfriendliness.

WOMEN WANT WIENERS, BUNS TO COME OUT EVEN

TORONTO (CP)—It isn't possible to buy a package of wiener buns that exactly matches the number of frankfurters in a pound or a half pound, says Mrs. W. R. Walton, Jr., of the Canadian Association of Consumers.

That was one of the housewives' peeves she expressed this week at a panel discussion during the third annual national packaging exposition.

Her other complaints concerned: Cardboard cartons with glued tops which, when cut open, cannot be closed properly and are not dustproof.

So-called "giant, economy and family-size" packages which often imply a much greater saving than is the actual case.

Bathroom and kitchen cleaners packed in cardboard containers which are not waterproof.

Red-striped transparent wrappers on bacon which make the product look leaner than it really is.

Canada Stacked Cards On Meyer-Counsel

ST. THOMAS, Ont. (BUP)—

The Canadian lawyer who defended Kurt Meyer against war atrocity charges said Thursday night the Nazi general was denied a fair trial.

Lt.-Col. Maurice Andrews of Stratford, Ont., charged the cabinet with changing criminal laws by order-in-council for the sole purpose of stacking the cards against Meyer.

"The essence of British justice was gone from these regulations," he told the Trinity Church Men's Club. "The whole tenet was that Meyer was guilty before he was proven guilty."

Meyer was sentenced to death for commanding Nazi troops who committed atrocities against Canadian prisoners in the Second World War.

The government commuted the sentence to life imprisonment later and he was released recently from a British prison in Wehr, Germany.

"In all justice to an enemy soldier, I must say what I do say," he added, while stressing that he had been ordered to defend Meyer.

He said his own life had been threatened many times for his part in the trial.

Educator Fears Jaycee Bonfire May Whet Comic-Book Interest

The unpopular subject of book-burning may be given a new twist by the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce, president Alf Heaslip said today.

Members are exploring the possibility of rounding up old crime and horror comic books in homes and second-hand stores and burning them at a public bonfire on a Jaycee battle League baseball field.

If the plan proves feasible, members hope to offer a good book for every 10 old "comic" books brought in by Victoria children. Co-operation of publishers will also be sought.

Policy of the Junior Chamber is to maintain constant vigilance against introduction of objectionable comics.

BOOK-BURNING OPPOSED

The plan to hold a public bonfire of children's horror and crime comics was criticized in Toronto Thursday by a prominent educator and a book publisher.

Dr. John A. Lang, director of education research at the Ontario College of Education, said that he wished "there were no comics, but I don't think book-burning in general can be widely supported."

He said the burning might increase the children's interest in books in the fire.

Publisher Archie Fry of Childhood Publications Limited said he does not advocate a purge by fire.

"People make too much fuss about them . . . but burning them will only have the effect of creating a wider interest," he said the problem was one of taste.

PM Reads 'Horror'

LONDON (Reuters)—The House of Commons laughed and cheered Thursday when Prime Minister Churchill, winner of the Nobel prize for literature, admitted he wants to read some "horror" comic books.

He told the chuckling members that he asked to see some of the comics several weeks ago but had not yet had a chance to examine them. The house is debating what can be done to cut off the flow to newsstands of the widely-attacked comic "horror" comics.

Churchill's admission came while Home Secretary Gwilym Lloyd George was being bombarded with questions about the comics. Labor member Barnett Stross asked Lloyd George if it were not true that he was supplying Churchill with "horror" comics.

'Mr. 5x5' Was a Big Man When It Came to a Touch

CHICAGO (UP)—A hotel official told today how Harry (Mr. Five by Five) Lester "struck like a panther" in ducking out on a $15,000 bill.

The hotel's tab was only one of many debts Lester left unpaid when he dropped out of sight here Oct. 25. Investigators have estimated he owes from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000.

Party Line Chat Held Responsible for Fire

MELROSE, Ont. (BUP)—A rural telephone conversation was blamed today for more than $10,000 damage in a fire that left six persons homeless.

The general store and the storekeeper's home burned to the ground Tuesday. A customer in the store said he tried for more than 20 minutes to break into a party line chat and phone for help. By the time the talkers hung up—the flames burned out his connection.

The hotel, which was not named, said Lester paid a basic $50-a-day bill for about a year and "built up a large amount of confidence before he struck like a panther."

When he disappeared, a spokesman said, Lester owed $2,500 for his last eight days of room, board and expenses, plus bad cheques for $8,500 and $4,000.

"Mr. Five by Five," so-called because he carries 280 pounds of weight on his five foot, five inch frame, played the part of a quiet businessman at the hotel.

Along the night club district of Rush Street, however, Lester was known as a lavish spender who thought nothing of slipping a bartender a $100 tip.

His free and easy ways enabled him to run up huge debts with gamblers, businessmen and even night club owners, police said.

Vancouver Island Communities United in Bond of Remembrance

A hush settled over all Vancouver Island communities Thursday at 11 a.m. as veterans and residents paid their respects to the servicemen who did not return from the First Great War, Second Great War and Korean campaign.

A typical service was that held in Langford, under auspices of Prince Edward branch, Canadian Legion.

E. Jeffery, Legion president, delivered the address, and Rev. H. J. Jones, padre, conducted prayers. Rev. J. A. Stewart read the lesson, and the Salvation Army band played hymns and accompanied the singing.

CHILDREN MARCH

During the laying of wreaths Piper D. Porteous played the lament, "Flowers of the Forest." He also led the parade from the public works building, assembly point for marching veterans, legion members, scouts, cubs, and Colwood and Langford Guides and Brownies. Large contingents of Legionnaires, Scouts, Guides, Cubs and Brownies took part in the annual ceremony, before the Cross of Sacrifice on Canada Avenue, Duncan.

Prayers were said by Rev. W. O. McKee, Baptist; Rev. F. H. Gough, United Church, and Rev. Brian Page, Anglican.

BEREAVED MOTHERS Mrs. F. Fawcett laid a wreath on behalf of all bereaved mothers of the district.

Other wreaths were brought forward by officers of the three armed services and representatives of city and district organizations.

Archdeacon A. E. Hendy of St. Paul's Anglican Church conducted the Nanaimo service at the city cenotaph when all branches of the services and city service clubs laid wreaths. Parade to the cenotaph was arranged by Fred Steeds, secretary-manager of the Canadian Legion in Nanaimo.

Central Saanich Council Approves Lighting Scheme

SAANICHTON—Central Saanich council has given favorable consideration to plans submitted by the Chamber of Commerce for a lighting system at Brentwood.

Twenty-four lights of the 200 watt enclosed type will be mounted, at a total cost of $3,600. Reeve Sydney Pickles said at a meeting this week that he thought the B.C. Electric could establish the system on a rental purchase basis.

"Otherwise a small debenture would have to be floated," he said. "We are trying to make the scheme as inexpensive as possible."

Council decided to settle a long-disputed social assistance case in which it has been involved with Saanich, and will recommend to the incoming council that $600 be paid to Saanich in two installments.

NOT RESPONSIBLE

It was advised, however, that the municipality could not be held legally responsible for the sum.

Also supported was a suggestion by C. R. Lamont that old automobile bodies be used to form a breakwater at Island View Beach.

A five-member recreation commission was approved. It will include Mrs. H. J. MacDonald, Ron Knott, Clarence Covell, Gordon "Bud" Michell and Robert Godfrey.

WANT SPEED LIMIT

Brentwood PTA registered objection to abandonment of the 15-mile speed limit in school areas and the matter was referred to the police commission with suggestion for a 30-mile zone.

Dealing with correspondence concerning Saanich waterworks apportionments, the reeve commented that Central Saanich had been "short-changed" to the extent of $115,000. The municipality's position, he averred, had been weakened by inaction of the apportionment board.

Municipal clerk J. W. Ismay will be returning officer for the coming elections and place of nominations and polls will remain the same as at the last election.

ISLAND DIGEST

6 Victoria Daily Times FRIDAY, NOV. 12, 1954

Islanders Criticize Post Office Ruling

Box Rental Doubled; Subscribers Claim New Regulations Reduce Mail Services

Recent enforcement of post office department regulations on Salt Spring Island has aroused indignant protest from rural subscribers.

Touching off angry opposition in mid-October was a 100 per cent increase in post office lock box rentals from $3 to $6 a year for persons living on a rural mail delivery route who also make use of post office boxes in Ganges.

Protesting residents are either discontinuing box rentals or refusing to pay the increased fee, according to O. Leigh Spencer, one of the subscribers. He also says daily newspaper subscriptions have suffered because residents depending upon R. F. D. delivery, where there are such routes, are getting poor service. Many newspaper subscriptions have been cancelled.

One resident of the island, complaining of poor delivery service, said that last week she received the Victoria Daily Times Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday editions on Saturday of last week. She expected the Friday and Saturday editions on Monday.

NEWSPAPERS LATE

R. F. D. delivery on the island is made four days a week, meaning, says Mr. Spencer, that newspapers are received two to three days after publication. With lock boxes, which are available six days a week, subscribers may pick up papers and mail at their convenience, getting daily papers the day after publication.

Subscribers are of the opinion that they should be allowed to choose the system of rural mail service best suited to their needs, without discrimination in the way of rental fees.

Speaking on behalf of the post office department, R. F. Reid, Victoria postmaster, said such regulations are Canada-wide, and although Salt Spring Island lies outside his territory it would seem that the reason for increased box fees is the same as here in the city.

DUPLICATE SERVICE

Mr. Reid said the post office department feels that if it has to provide duplicate mail services, then it should charge more for one of them. Since R. F. D. delivery is free, then the extra charge is applied to box rentals. In Victoria, Mr. Reid explained, many firms served by normal letter carrier (comparable to RFD carrier) wish the added convenience of having a post office box where mail may be collected almost any time during the week.

Consequently, these firms pay more for this "dual service" in box rentals. Complaints of this nature, he said, should be made by letter to W. H. Wilson, district director of postal services, Vancouver.

It is his business to see that this district is handled according to regulations.

A third alternative rural mail service on Salt Spring Island is general delivery, but under this system mail may be picked up only during open-wicket periods at the post office.

Two other reasons why lock boxes are preferred include having to wait for delivery by RFD carrier, and the fact that many people spending time away from home have important mail sorted for them by friends and forwarded to them.

One resident of the island, complaining of poor delivery service, said that last week she received the Victoria Daily Times Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday editions on Saturday of last week. She expected the Friday and Saturday editions on Monday.

CANDIDATE for reeve in Central Saanich will be Councillor Willard Michell, member of council since formation of municipality four years ago. Mr. Michell announced intention today. Also in reeveship race will be H. Rupert Brown. Reeve Sydney Pickles has announced he will not run for a third term.

School Board Bars Nanaimo Road Builder

Seek Agreement On Compensation

NANAIMO — General Construction Co., working on the new Island Highway section through the northern part of the city, will be faced with a restraining order prohibiting its trespassing on the lands of Princess Anne School.

Failure of the provincial public works department and the board of School District #68 to reach an agreement on compensation for school land being used for highway purposes resulted in the board's decision Wednesday to bar entry to school property.

"I suggest we ask for a restraining order to stop the contractors from trespassing on school lands until a compensation settlement has been reached," said Trustee Dr. Jack Tully. His suggestion, which was in line with advice of the board's attorney, was adopted.

RAPID PROGRESS

The company, contractor for the new four-mile stretch of highway from Wellington south to Nanaimo, has made rapid progress on the road paralleling the E. & E. railway tracks where it lies within city limits. Grading is completed from two miles south of Wellington to within a few yards of Princess Anne School at Waddington Road and work crews have begun clearing and grubbing on school property.

This work will be stopped until the public works department comes to terms. A letter from the department, stating it was waiting the report of an independent appraiser, prompted the board's action.

ISLAND POLICE NOTIFIED OF WAREHOUSE BURGLARY

NANAIMO — RCMP alerted Victoria and Island police early today in their search for a dry-cleaning truck which may have been involved in an overnight warehouse burglary here.

A large quantity of cigarettes was taken from a W. H. Malkin Company warehouse. Police said the break-in occurred between 3 and 3.30 a.m. today. Other details have not yet been released by police.

Thunderbird Scrum Half 'Gets-It-Out'

Although it looks for all the world like a Crimson Tide interception on this play in Thursday's McKechnie Cup English rugby match at Macdonald Park, it wasn't, and UBC Thunderbirds defeated Victoria 16-3, in the opening match of the series. Scrum half Dick Owen of

Vancouver Bids For Solons

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Eddie Mulligan, president of the Sacramento Solons, said Thursday night he had received an enticing offer to move the Pacific Coast League club to Vancouver, B.C., and that he would put the proposition before Solon stockholders next week.

Mulligan said he had met in San Francisco with Coley Hall, Vancouver businessman and sports enthusiast. Hall has been seeking a baseball team for the Canadian city which lost its Western International League team when the loop went out of business this fall.

The Solon president said he told Hall "our first loyalty is to Sacramento," but "I was but one of a group of stockholders and could not speak for the entire Solon family."

Since Mulligan took over in 1951, the Sacramento club has had some bad financial years. It lost about $250,000 in 1952 and 1953 and around $50,000 in 1954.

Hall gave an attractive prospect on guarantee of paid admissions, park rental and radio and television money, said Mulligan.

But he added, "The Sacramento people have to be considered before one jumps off the deep end."

Hall recently talked also with owner C. L. Brick Laws of the Oakland PCL club about the possibility of moving to Vancouver. Laws indicated interest, but said he and the PCL would have to study the proposal further.

Vancouver Reps Blank Norwest Side

VANCOUVER (CP)—Vancouver Reps opened their McKechnie Cup English rugby schedule with a 6-0 victory over Norwests here Thursday before 500 persons, scoring two unconverted tries without reply.

After a scoreless first half, in which Norwests had a slight edge in play, Reps took the lead 10 minutes into the second period when a nice three-quarter run sent George Pull in for a try in the right-hand corner just before Fred Boyd pulled him down. Bill Westcott's attempt to convert was far short.

In another 20 minutes a grand loose dribble by Denny Veitch, one-armed member of the Kats who played a stand-out game on his first appearance in Rep strip, saw the ball snapped up and passed out to Pull, who outpaced all opposition for another try in the right. This time Ian Atkins' kick for extra points was wide.

UBC Thunderbirds 16, Victoria 3
By BILL WALKER

University of British Columbia Thunderbirds had too much polish for Victoria's Crimson Tide in the opening game of the annual McKechnie Cup English Rugby series here Thursday afternoon.

With former Victorian, John Newton, in the starring role, the Thunderbirds defeated the Tide, 16-3, scoring two goals, one try and one penalty goal, one penalty goal for Victoria's representative side.

Newton scored two tries, both coming in the first half when the 'Birds had a wide edge territorially, and was the most dangerous man on the field with the possible exception of inside three Ross Wright, also of the UBC squad.

Outplaying the locals by a comfortable margin, UBC had three scoring chances in the first 20 minutes before fullback Bill Whyte finally found the range with a 32-yard penalty goal after having missed two previous attempts from about the same distance.

Newton Was Long Gone Early

Newton scored his first try some eight minutes later when he completed a fine three-quarter movement by romping 40 yards down the left sideline to place the ball behind the uprights. Wright set up the play beautifully by selling the dummy to two Victoria defenders before speeding Newton on his unmoored way.

Newton got his second try seconds before half time when Wright once again dummied the Victoria defenders successfully. The try was tainted, however, in that the pass which Newton took on the goal line was obviously forward. Referee George Biddle declined to share the same view and when Bill

Pynn Saved a Blanking

Gary Pynn scored Victoria's points on a 31-yard penalty goal from a slight angle late in the match. Pynn later broke through to dribble the ball 40 yards downfield. However, just when it appeared that the sortie might be a successful one, he was overtaken and played off the ball.

The UBC scrum dominated their part of the proceedings, especially in line-outs where their greater height stood them in good stead. Thus the UBC three-line had more opportunity to function. Victoria's three-line movements, thought often away to fine starts through the accomplished ball-handling of scrum-half Gary Webster and stand-off Ray Caltan, malfunctioned because of the weakness of the insides. John Skillings played a strong game on the wing for the locals.

Coach Doug Bray of the Tide, though giving the Thunderbirds their dues for "fully deserving of victory," expressed displeasure, and seemingly rightly so, at the refereeing of Biddle who missed many offside and often was far away from the play.

The Tide's next home game in the cup series will be played here on Boxing Day, December 27.

Australia to Stage Pro Net Tourney

MELBOURNE, Australia (UP)—John R. Brennan, the Melbourne businessman who is directing the current professional tennis tour of Australia, said today he is planning to hold a world championship for the play-for-pay stars on this city's Kooyung courts next February.

Brennan has obtained permission to stage the competition in the 15,000-seat stadium. He said the prizes, which would be based on a percentage of the gate receipts, probably would be the richest in professional tennis history.

Australian observers regard Brennan's plan as an attempt to break the stranglehold Jack Kramer, U.S. promoter, has built up in the professional field. Brennan said he planned to issue invitations to professional players in all countries and would issue Kramer, former U.S. and Wimbledon champion and still one of the world's top professional players, a personal invitation to play here.

Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor of Australia and America's Pancho Gonzales and Pancho Segura currently are playing under Brennan's sponsorship. All four have toured for Kramer during the past two years.

Eight U.S. Cities Seek '60 Olympics

CHICAGO (AP)—Eight American cities are expected to extend bids for the 1960 Olympic Games before a selection group of the United States Olympic Committee meeting here next Tuesday and Wednesday.

The 1956 games will be in Melbourne, Australia.

Chicago, Detroit, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, New York, Minneapolis, Pittsburgh and Houston are reported interested in landing the 1960 games.

In addition, Colorado Springs and Aspen, Colo., jointly, and Lake Placid, N.Y., and Sun Valley, Idaho, seek the winter phase of the 1960 games.

The American city finally selected will send a representative to the international committee meeting in Paris next April to bid against cities of other countries.

Dutchmen Gain Grid Semifinal

SARNIA, Ont. (CP)—Kitchen-Waterloo Dutchmen defeated Sarnia Imperials, 16-8, Thursday to make it two straight in their best-of-three Ontario Rugby Football Union final and advance into the Grey Cup semifinal. Dutchmen won the opener, 13-12, after 10 minutes of overtime.

It was 8-8 until the fourth quarter when Dutchmen exploded for eight points to wrap up the game and move into the cup semifinal against the Western Interprovincial Football Union winner on the home ground of the western champions.

OTTAWA (CP)—Sam The Rifle Etcheverry of Montreal Alouettes today was awarded the Jeff Russel Trophy as the most sportsmanlike and valuable player in the Big Four. Halfback Ron Howell of Hamilton Tiger-Cats was chosen the rookie of the year. The 24-year-old Etcheverry who earlier this year was unanimous choice as quarter on The Canadian Press Big Four all-star team, is the fourth Montreal player to receive the award since it was first put up for competition in 1928. Last year's winner was Bob Cunningham, Canadian-born Ottawa Rough Riders back who retired after the 1953 season.

ROOKIE GOALIE WINS FOR HABS

Leafs Edge Wings In Riotous Contest

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Jacques Plante fractured a jaw and Toronto Maple Leafs broke a jinx in the National Hockey League Thursday night.

Plante, 25-year-old goaltender with the league-leading Montreal Canadiens, fell as he poled-axed when struck on the right cheek by a puck a few minutes before Canadiens met Black Hawks.

Canadiens went on to win 7-4 with rookie Andre Babinette in the nets before 14,033 hometown fans.

The Leafs, meanwhile, edged the second-place Red Wings 1-0 on Sid Smith's goal at Detroit Olympia in a game that had hot-tempered Ted Lindsay taking a poke at Toronto coach King Clancy and then going after a heckling fan.

The Leafs won the game since Nov. 2, 1952, that Leafs beat the Wings on Detroit ice in a regular league game.

Plante's injury was tough. The six-foot native of Shawinigan Falls, Que., taking a crack at his first full NHL season, was hit by a shot fired by teammate Bert Olmstead. Babinette, 20-year-old Montreal goalie, was called in for his first big-league game. He operated nicely, stopping 27 Chicago drives.

GOEFFRION AGAIN

Maurice Richard scored two goals for Canadiens. Bernie Geoffrion, Eddie Litzenberger, Ken Mosdell, Floyd Curry and Jackie Leclair scored the others. It was Geoffrion's 14th goal in as many games.

Two of the Chicago goals were scored by players who had just joined the club—Paul Mesnick, peddled by Montreal at Metro Prystai, traded by Detroit. The others were by Jack McIntyre and Bill Mosienko.

The fireworks at Detroit started in the second period when Lindsay and Toronto defenseman Jim Thomson mixed it up near the Leaf bench. Temperamentary Ted threw a straight right at Thomson and both dropped their gloves. No damage was done.

When order appeared to be restored Lindsay tossed a glove at Clancy after he yelled: "That's the first time I ever saw you drop your stick in a fight Lindsay."

The glove which belonged to Thomson brushed Clancy. Lindsay then took a swing at King. He missed. Lindsay and Thomson went to the penalty box with majors at 15:11. The teams were on the way to the dressing room when Lindsay crawled over the screening at one end to get at a heckling fan. Sawchuk scrambled up the screening, too. There were a few punches but none apparently landed.

All-Stars Tie City In Soccer Benefit

Victoria City of the Coast Soccer League and the District All-Stars battled to a 2-2 draw Thursday before about 500 fans at Athletic Park in an exhibition soccer contest.

The game was the first of a scheduled three-game series with all benefits going to swell injured player funds on both sides. Date for the second game will be set at a future time.

Up for competition in the series is a trophy donated by Jim Lackie.

The game was a well-played, fast contest with City holding a slight territorial advantage but being unable to finish plays in front of the goal.

Wally Thorne showed well in goal for All-Stars, while Pete Winter and Al Davies shared goalkeeping duties for City.

Tim Walker gave City a 1-0 half-time bulge when he took a pass from Chick Newman and Cedric Robb to beat Thorne cleanly in the first half.

Bombers Square West Grid Final

Deciding Contest Saturday

By AL VICKERY

WINNIPEG (CP)—For the fifth successive year the western football final is going the limit before a winner is decided.

The best-of-three 1954 Western Interprovincial Football Union final was turned into a sudden-death affair Thursday afternoon when Winnipeg Blue Bombers blasted Edmonton Eskimos 12-6 to tie the series at one game apiece. Eskos won the opener 9-3 at home Saturday. Final game is at Edmonton Saturday night, 8:30 MST.

Ever since the western final was turned into a best-of-three series from a two-game, total-point affair in 1950, it has taken the three contests before the west's representative was decided. And the club which won the first game has also dropped the next two in each final up to 1953.

A first-year import fullback, a six-year American back, now classed as a Canadian, and a 20-year-old Canadian back were the big guns as Bombers ripped through the Eskimo line for 245 yards.

They were Byron Townsend, former Texas line-smasher, Tom Casey and Gerry James. Townsend, who personally picked up 103 yards, and Casey, a standout both on offense and defense, went over for Winnipeg's touchdowns. James ground out 49 yards and went for good gains on punt and kickoff returns. His 63-yard runback of the opening kickoff was a gem.

Guard Buck Rogers, who has taken over the place-kicking chores since 1953 scoring leader Bud Korshak went sour, converted Casey's game-winning touchdown. He also booted a single which deadlocked the game at 6-6 early in the fourth quarter.

Quarterback Jack Jacobs, renowned as a passer, reverted to the ground game when he realized his backs were practically unstoppable. He tossed only 12 passes, completing six for 61 yards. Edmonton tried the same number but were successful on only two for 30 yards. Four were intercepted, including three by Keith Pearce, one of the best defenders on the field.

ESKS RALLY

Bombers delighted the record Winnipeg Stadium crowd of 20,933 by taking a 5-0 first-quarter lead. They fell back 6-5 in the second quarter and through the scoreless third session, before coming through with a single and a converted major in the final 15 minutes.

Townsend plunged 11 yards for his major in the first quarter. Falooney went over on a one-yard quarterback sneak for Eskos' sole major, converted by Dean. Casey romped 20 yards through a maze of Eskos' would-be tacklers for the winning five-pointer, converted by Rogers.

The veteran guard picked up his single when he was wide on a short field goal. After the contest, Winnipeg coach Al Sherman said he thought it was one of the toughest games of the season and "that next game is going to be as tough."

Edmonton coach Frank Pop Ivy thought the Bombers "have lots of power which they finally used. They beat us soundly along the line and when they beat you there, you're done for."

Stamps, Flyers Crowd Leaders

Edmonton 3, New Westminster 3
Calgary 11, Saskatoon 4

The Alberta members of the Western Hockey League, both driving hard for the loop's top rung, garnered the lion's share of the points in Remembrance Day games.

Calgary Stampeders, scoring early and late, swamped the cellar-dwelling Saskatoon Quakers 11-4, while the roadweary Edmonton Flyers summoned up enough energy to battle New Westminster to a 3-3 draw.

The results left the two Alberta clubs deadlocked in second place with 18 points apiece, just one point behind the pace-setting Royals, who have played three games more than Calgary and one more than Edmonton.

In the only game scheduled tonight, Victoria invades Vancouver. More than 4,800 wildly cheering Calgarians watched their smooth playing Stampeders run the score into double figures for the second time this season.

Max Quackenbush, Sid Finney and Ray Barry led the Calgary marksmen with two goals apiece. Steve Witluk, George Pargeter, Gerry Couture, Jim McFadden and Pat Lundy added singletons. Saskatoon goals were scored by Doug Bentley, Dick Lamoureux, Eldon Kobus and Ray Manson.

At New Westminster, 2,600 fans watched their Royals come back with two third-period goals to earn a 3-3 tie over Edmonton.

City officials say that the decision not to award points for the default is against the Coast Soccer League constitution.

CITY GETS RUN-AROUND

Victoria City football club officials have been informed by the Coast Soccer League that no points will be awarded the locals for a recent scheduled game here at which St. Andrews failed to show.

However, City officials announced today the St. Andrews club has been ordered to pay City any expenses incurred. Also, the league stipulated that all travel from this date will be by boat.

U.S. Davis Cuppers Advance in Net Meet

SYDNEY, Australia (UP)—Tony Trabert and Ham Richardson of the American Davis Cup team easily won their opening matches in straight sets today at the New South Wales tennis championships.

Trabert, former U.S. champion from Cincinnati, defeated Les Flanders of Queensland, 6-2, 6-2, 6-2. Richardson, U.S. inter-collegiate titleholder from Baton Rouge, La., and Tulane University, ousted Neil Gibson of Sydney, 6-2, 6-3, 6-0.

Trabert and Richardson had drawn first-round byes. Trabert meets Don Candy and Richardson plays Neil Fraser Saturday in the third round.

Gerald Moss of Modesto, Calif., and Mike Green of Miami Beach, Fla., two junior players who accompanied the U.S. cup players to Australia to gain experience in international competition, lost their first matches here.

Astley Cooper, an 18-year-old player who accompanied the Australian squad on its tour of Europe and the United States earlier this year, ousted Moss, 6-2, 5-7, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4. Green also

Cadets Take Grid Trophy

Royal Roads 18, HMCS Venture 12

By RON COULTER

Cadets from Royal Roads Canadian Services College, were the big winners on the Victoria Junior Canadian Football League front Thursday.

Not only did the hard-driving cadets take advantage of the strong passing arm of quarterback Earl Law to defeat HMCS Venture, 18-12, at HMCS Naden Colville Road grounds but they were winners on four other counts:

1. They took possession of the newly-donated J. C. Hibbard Trophy, a cup donated by Rear Admiral J. C. Hibbard to be played for annually between the two naval units.

2. They captured the league title by tying Venture at one loss each, the cadets winning on the for-and-against points basis. Royal Roads scored 216 points this season while yielding 30. Venture compiled 141 points for and 39 against.

3. They escaped the necessity of meeting third-place Oak Bay Drakes in a sudden-death semi-final. Venture are scheduled to meet Drakes Sunday at Central Park at 2:30, winner advancing against Royal Roads in a two-game, total point final.

4. They avenged an earlier 12-10 defeat at the hands of Venture, the only blemish on their record this season.

BIG GUN

Law was the individual star of the game. He passed for one touchdown, scored another major and then set up the cadets' final touchdown with a 35-yard pass before crashing into the end zone on a quarterback sneak.

Royal Roads drew first blood, marching from their own 25-yard line for a touchdown after four minutes of action. Law passed to Pete Howard for the major. Ron Binnie converting. Venture cashed in on a sleeper play with quarterback Chuck Thomas passing to John McIntosh on the sidelines, McIntosh going all the way. Thomas kicked the convert.

Jim Macintosh intercepted a Law pass and ran 65 yards for a touchdown to put Venture in the lead, 12-6. Thomas passing for the convert.

TWO SNEAKS

Law went over for Royal Roads on a quarterback sneak in the third quarter after the cadets had marched 50 yards. Binnie's convert attempt was blocked.

The cadets deadlocked the score as Binnie kicked for a rouge early in the fourth quarter.

Then, with five minutes remaining in the game and darkness falling, Law tossed a 35-yard pass to Dave Brown, who went down to the one-yard line. Law scored on another quarterback sneak and Binnie converting.

English Ruggers Win

PARIS (AP)—Britain Thursday defeated New Zealand 26-6 in a World Cup Rugby League tournament game at Bordeaux.

The victory left Britain tied with France for the leadership. Each has five points. France today defeated Australia 15-5 at Nantes.

TV BOUT

NEW YORK (UP)—Despite three straight defeats, middleweight Ralph (Tiger) Jones of Yonkers, N.Y., is favored at 8-5 to beat newcomer Hector Constance of Trinidad, B.W.I., tonight in their TV-radio 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

INVENTED by the late Herbert Pott, device shown above could make life easier for handicapped Victorians if manufacturing and distributing plan proposed by A. H. Pease is put into effect. (Leslie Spencer photos).

BOON TO ARTHRITICS

Disabled Helped By Weird Devices

By BILL PARKER

Take four baby-bottle nipples, a pair of clothes pegs and a pair of sticks, put them together in the proper manner and you have an ingenious device that an arthritic woman can use to put on her stockings.

Sounds slightly fantastic? It's been done, and successfully, too, as Arthur H. Pease demonstrated to the Victoria branch of the Canadian Arthritic and Rheumatism Society at a meeting in the YWCA building.

Following plans designed by the late Herbert Pott, an arthritic who has invented numerous simple aids for cripples, Mr. Pease joined the clothes pegs to the ends of the sticks and pulled nipples over the movable ends so the pegs could grip things, stockings in particular, without tearing or snagging.

An arthritic or rheumatic who is unable to bend down, has merely to clip the pegs to the end of a stocking, lower the stocking suspended at the end of the pegs and pull it on.

Without bending. Other inventions of Mr. Pott, demonstrated today, included devices to retrieve fallen articles without bending over, aids for bathing and drying, for turning taps on and off, and a special table for bed-ridden patients.

Mr. Pease is carrying on the work started by Mr. Pott, has drawn up a five-point plan to make these aids available to arthritic, rheumatic, polio, multiple sclerosis and other similarly afflicted people.

"The idea is," he said, "that many handicapped persons have to have help to get dressed or to pick up articles. These aids, simple as they are, will allow them to help themselves—something that most disabled people prefer to do."

Mr. Pease's object is to make available to all handicapped persons, wherever they live, such articles of self-help at the lowest possible cost, by means of, as far as possible, voluntary work on a non-profit basis.

He has appealed to the Victoria branch of the society to help in his plan.

"First," he says, "we should have a complete supply of these articles available in the home of a member, obtainable by anyone on a qualified person's recommendation. We should also have a complete supply of parts so that there is no delay in making the articles."

Drawings and patterns should show the simplest and most efficient production methods for each article.

Owners of home workshops should be approached and asked to volunteer their talents in preparing the aids.

"Information on how to make these items should be made available to relatives of sufferers who might wish to make them at home."

Mr. Pease has shown his devices to doctors in both Victoria and Vancouver, and has received favorable comment.

Mr. Pease said he would be glad to meet and demonstrate the use of the aids to anyone.

He resides at 3411 Hamsterley Road, Elk Lake, phone 9-2689.

12 Murders Go Unsolved In Vancouver

Hopkins, Brent Killings Recall Other Violent Deaths in Vancouver

From BUP and CP Dispatches

VANCOUVER, B.C.—The spectre of 12 unsolved murders in the past decade hung over police today trying to solve the latest in a puzzling chain of killings here.

The brutal strangling of newspaper printer Robert Hopkins, 46, has so far defied both the city's homicide squad and RCMP, but it was not the first time slayers had gone free.

In September, night club waiter Danny Brent was the victim of methodical gangland killing. Brent was shot to death and his body dumped on the University golf course. Police said his killing might have been a gangland slaying in a narcotics war.

Murders still unsolved today are those of Chinese herb doctor Jung Wah Hay Dec. 14, 1944; factory worker Jenny Conroy Dec. 28, 1944; taxi driver Reginald Price Oct. 1, 1945; laborer Harold Henderson Dec. 22, 1946; seven-year-old schoolboy Roddy Moore Oct. 19, 1947; cashier Joyce Monasterski Sept. 17, 1949; logger William Kelly Oct. 2, 1949; old-age pensioner William Bent Dec. 6, 1949; bicycle racer Albert Backus July 6, 1951; pensioner William McIntosh Nov. 26, 1951, and Brent.

Reviewing the cases, police said McIntosh, Brent, Price, Kelly, Henderson and Hay were apparently killed in robberies. The Conroy and Monasterski women and young Moore appear to have been slain by sex fiends. The Lee woman was killed during a drinking party, and Backus died when three teenage thugs "put the boots" to him on a downtown street.

A Vancouver newspaper says criminals can buy guns in Vancouver's underworld for $100, or rent one for $25.

In an article under the by-line of veteran police reporter Ray Munro, the newspaper says a criminal can place an order "with certain parties in the Vancouver underworld for practically any type of handgun he desires, and for a stiff price—up to $100—can have one delivered."

"In certain criminal circles, guns can be rented, fully loaded, at $25 for each job."

Munro, whose bylined articles in the Province last month disclosed that fake lotteries were operating here, said that last week he found three automatic pistols, relics of the Second World War, that he could have purchased without the required police permits.

Munro said majority of the guns for sale or hire in the underworld were unregistered and had the serial numbers obliterated.

Meanwhile police, combatting a wave of violent crime that has resulted in three bank holdups and two slayings in the last eight weeks together with numerous small holdups, issued an appeal to Vancouver citizens to turn over all unregistered revolvers or pistols to the police.

ENTIRE DETECTIVE FORCE ARRESTED IN TIJUANA

TIJUANA, Mexico (AP)—The entire Tijuana detective force, 27 men, was arrested Thursday night on orders of Army Capt. Salvador Revueltas Olivera.

Police said the arrests followed a statement by Raoul Casares that Tijuana detective had taken from him $9,000 of the $10,000 loot from a Los Angeles robbery and told him, and his accomplices to get out of town.

I Shouldn't Start on Manor St. David's white table wine—because when I begin talking about this most delectable Bright's wine, I'm gone! But honestly, I can't think of any drink in our "hospitality cupboard" that comes in so handy, so effective! We drink it chilled, before a meal... I put out a bottle when we have something like spaghetti and meatballs, a fish or chicken course—oh, almost any dinner! And when friends drop in, a glass of chilled MANOR ST. DAVID'S white wine—perhaps with an olive in it—makes their eyes light up! And it's so inexpensive! Or if you like a red table wine—try Manor St. David's red—you'll be delighted. Mark my words!

I Like Telling You About Products which I know are going to bring you a very real satisfaction. For instance—do you know about "PINKETTS TABLETS"? They are really excellent for anyone who is bothered with symptoms of excess stomach acid—such as heartburn, sour stomach, acid indigestion or loss of appetite. These famed tablets will relieve you—right away! Pinketts are made from a very special triple-action formula... which neutralizes stomach acidity; maintains a normal alkaline reserve in the blood stream; protects irritated stomach mucosa. Now, you get a package at your drug store and see for yourself! (Money's refunded if you're not satisfied!)

Prince George Socrads Blame Civil Servants, Not Beavers

PRINCE GEORGE—Was it busy beavers being wilfully inefficient or civil servants being wilfully inefficient that caused the washout on the CNR tracks?

Fort George Social Credit Association thinks civil servants are to blame for the accident and cited the case as one of the reasons for a recent Social Credit League resolution blasting government employees.

It charged that many civil servants are wilfully inefficient apparently to discredit the government for political advantage.

The Fort George association press release asks: "Who was responsible for the blasting of the beaver dam south of Isle Pierre, releasing a flood of water which washed out the CNR tracks, resulting in the wrecking of a train and the death of a man?"

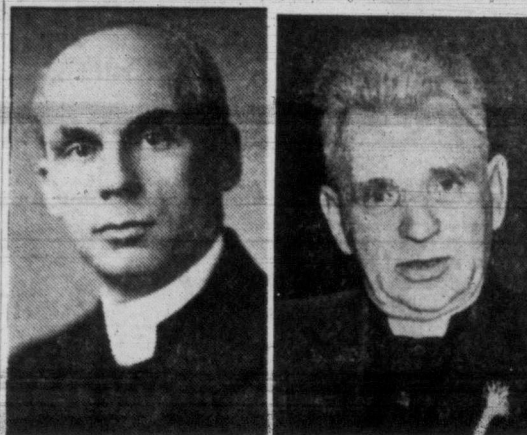

The release, signed by H. W. Sperling, president, and Otto Leboe, secretary, was sent to Education Minister Williston and B.C. Social Credit League. It said "we are very appreciative of those in the civil service who render efficient service in the discharge of their duties."

"We believe these same employees are only too anxious to see this type of service rendered by all. It is already apparent that the inefficiency of a few had a tendency to discredit the civil servants as a whole."

The incident cited began when beavers built a dam over a stream which released a flood of water which washed out the CNR tracks and derailed a train.

An inquest jury claimed that the beaver dam was blasted by the public works department without notifying the CNR.

St. Aidan's to Mark 60th Anniversary

Diamond Jubilee Celebration Will Open With Special Services Sunday; Set Program

St. Aidan's United Church will celebrate its diamond jubilee, starting Sunday. Special affairs marking the 60th anniversary will be held next week.

St. Aidan's was opened on November 18, 1894, but the congregation dates back to 1873 when the Rev. Simon McGregor, MA, then minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church of Victoria opened a service and Sunday school in Cedar Hill schoolhouse. The sole surviving member of that first congregation is Miss Margaret Irvine at present living with her grand-niece, Mrs. Gilbert Brown of 3920 Cedar Hill Road. Miss Irvine served as organist at the opening of the church.

On Sunday at 11 the Rev. William Buckingham, BA, chairman of Victoria Presbytery, will preach. At 7:30 the Rev. H. J. Armistage, BA, BD, formerly of St. Aidan's, will be in the pulpit. The choir, directed by Miss Margery M. Vaughan, LRSM, Mus. G. (Paed.), the church organist, will sing special music at both services.

A "diamond jubilee bazaar" under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild, will be held in the church hall on Wednesday afternoon and will be opened at 2:30 by Mrs. Robert W. Mayhew.

Wednesday at 8 the women's groups of the congregation will present "The Album of Memory" in the church hall under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Crockett. This will be followed by a one-act play, "The Gay Nineties," under the auspices of the AOTS Men's Club and directed by Mr. Bert Crockett.

HOLD PAGEANT
Thursday evening at 8 a specially written pageant, "St. Aidan's," will be presented under the auspices of the official board. The cast will be supported by the church choir rendering familiar hymns linking the seven scenes of the pageant.

A congregational supper will be held in the church hall on Friday evening at 6:15. People now resident in the area who were active in St. Aidan's at the time of the church opening will relate their memories.

Montgomery Opens Winter Fair at Toronto Tonight

TORONTO (BUP) — Field Marshall Viscount Montgomery officially starts the Royal Agricultural winter fair off on the biggest one-week stand in its 26-year history tonight.

Horse-jumping teams from five nations will line up before their countries' flags for an official welcome from Mayor Leslie Saunders and the playing of their national anthems before they begin competing for international equestrian honors.

Spain will be represented for the first time, and Germany for the first time in 20 years. They will be competing against teams from Canada, the United States, and Mexico.

Canada Honors War Dead

Better Than Usual Weather Aids Large Turnouts; Monty at Ottawa

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Canadians bowed their heads in Remembrance Day tribute Thursday and thought of rows of white crosses in distant war dead cemeteries.

Weather for the annual parades to memorials was better than usual for mid-November in most parts of Canada and turnouts Thursday were large, a Canadian Press survey showed.

In Ottawa, Field Marshall Viscount Montgomery of Alamein, one of the most famous of Second World War army commanders, joined political leaders of Canada in the tribute at the national war memorial. Governor-General Massey, Prime Minister St. Laurent and others placed wreaths at the base of the monument after the "Last Post" and the traditional two minutes' silence for the 100,000 fallen.

The same type of service was held elsewhere, in communities large and small, at 11 a.m. local time in the 35th such observance since the guns of the First World War fell silent.

Centurian tanks rumbled through downtown Calgary in the biggest military parade in that city's history after a drum-head service attended by thousands in Mewata Stadium.

BRIGHT SUNLIGHT
Toronto held services in bright sunlight at the war memorial in front of city hall and at Soldiers' Tower on the University of Toronto grounds.

As crowds gathered before the city cenotaph in Hamilton's Gore Park, bagpipes wailed a lament.

One of the few places where services were marred by bad weather was Vancouver, where rain has fallen every Nov. 11 since 1950.

Umbrella-sheltered spectators, 3,800 of them, stood in cold heavy rain in Victory Square for the main ceremony.

Upwards of 6,000 troops and veterans took part in Montreal's parade to the Dominion Square cenotaph.

In Saskatoon, Lethbridge and Moose Jaw stores were closed to mark the observance and cenotaph services were held.

About 3,000 citizens attended Edmonton's cenotaph service. The weather was sunny and clear with brisk winds.

The charming city is, of course, Victoria.

QUEEN MOTHER HONORS FALLEN AT PRAYER

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (CP)—Queen Mother Elizabeth knelt Thursday in an old colonial church in silent tribute to the dead of both world wars.

During a tour of this restored historic site in an open horse-drawn coach, the Queen Mother stopped just before 11 a.m. at Bruton parish church, built in 1683 and named for a parish in Somerset, England. She and her party gathered inside as the time came for the traditional two-minute silence.

As the ancient bell in the high steeple tolled, the Queen knelt in one of the front pews. A large crowd stood in silence outside in the churchyard.

There was no service beyond the two-minute observance.

British-Russian Soccer Tiff Caused by 'Concussed' Player

LONDON (CP)—A soccer incident that threatened the fair name of British sportsmanship and cast a cloud over Anglo-Soviet cordiality on the playing field—seemed satisfactorily smoothed over today.

The happy ending came with a belated announcement by Arsenal manager Tom Whittaker. He cleared star player Jimmy Logie of any malice aforethought in refusing to shake hands with the Russian referee, Nikolai Latsychev.

Whittaker said Logie, Arsenal captain, was "concussed slightly" and didn't know what was going on when the breach of etiquette occurred.

Admission to Butchart Gardens will be free for visitors from now until spring. Autumn colors abound in the gardens at present, and care being taken to prepare plots and flora for next summer is of special interest to garden lovers.

Last season for the gardens is described as "successful" with local residents showing increased awareness of beauties to be found there. Favorably impressed U.S. visitors said the gardens compare more than favorably with similar gardens south of the border.

Girls' School 'Cold, Dirty'

'Makes Kingston's Prison for Women Look Like Luxury Hotel' Says Writer

VANCOUVER (CP)—A school in the east end for delinquent girls between the ages of eight and 18 has hit the headlines as a breeding place for vice and crime.

It is the girls' industrial school, 40-year-old institution for those considered too young for Kingston Penitentiary and other prisons. Editorial and letters to the editor began appearing in Vancouver newspapers following the release of a government report on the school.

The report by a committee of four men and a woman to Eric Martin, provincial health minister, told of teen-aged girls confined in concrete, dungeon-like cells, sleeping on mattresses and blankets tossed on damp floors of the sub-basement.

URGE NEW BUILDING

No change in personnel was suggested but the report urged strongly that a more modern building be constructed. It noted there is no chance for segregation and that all prisoners are lumped together "from the wayward child to the prostitute, drug addict, alcoholic or mentally ill."

There are no toilet facilities in the dormitories and the girls must call until someone hears them so that they may be taken to the bathroom.

The committee first visited the school Dec. 22, 1953, shortly after a fire and riot.

Jean Howarth, Vancouver Province columnist, who once did a series of articles on the women's prison at Kingston, described the industrial school detention cells in a series of stories after visiting the premises.

WORSE THAN KINGSTON

"In the girls' industrial school, there are half a dozen 'holes.' They are much worse than the Kingston cells, being not only barren concrete rooms furnished with only a thin mattress and blankets, but dirty, dilapidated and open, through their gridded, glassless windows, to the frosty night."

Miss Howarth said the cheeriest rooms in the place are on a firetrap top floor "where new, sick or homosexual girls are isolated."

"Our girls' industrial school... makes Kingston's prison for women look like a luxury hotel."

Letters to the editor followed. One, from Oyama, B.C., said: "The very thing which finally

What bothers you more than the weather on wash day? What takes more out of you than lugging and hanging out baskets of wet clothes? There's a far better way than that now-a-days. The Beatty Clothes Dryer saves all that. It's even as good a work-saver, and health-saver, as the Beatty Automatic Washer.

MAKES CLOTHES LAST LONGER

What is worse for clothes than wind and rain and ice and soot and mud? The Beatty Dryer puts an end to all this harmful exposure. Yet the clothes come out as good a colour as when dried in the sun. They are even softer, fluffier, freer from wrinkles.

It's Automatic

No other appliance is so easy to run. One dial controls all. Set for the degree of dryness desired, and the Dryer does the rest. It starts, and stops automatically. It stops when the clothes are as dry as you want them.

MINISTER BURIES MAN HE KILLED

BLAIRSVILLE, Ga. (UP)—A 46-year-old Baptist minister confessed today through his attorney that seven days ago he accidentally shot to death a hunting companion and preached his funeral while police sought the killer.

Attorney Jack G. Tarpley said the Rev. Carl Brewer, who is pastor of four rural churches in Union County, told him that "because of fear of the consequences and shock" he did not immediately admit his part in the death of Alvin Tower, 40, a farmer who is the father of eight small children.

No Income Tax Slash in 1955 PM Tells Labor

St. Laurent Says Defense Spending To Remain Same; Pension Fund Lags

OTTAWA (CP)—Canadians received a preview of their tax situation next year as Prime Minister St. Laurent Wednesday talked with senior labor leaders from his home province of Quebec.

In addressing delegations to the cabinet from the Canadian and Catholic Confederation of Labor and rail workers, the prime minister gave these indications:

The tax bill won't go up in the next year;

The government does not consider it necessary to increase tax revenues despite a pending deficit;

There will be no appreciable reductions in defense expenditure;

There will be some shifts in the spending of other departments;

The pension fund created by a special 2 per cent income tax just won't meet the present basis of pensions payments;

Higher income tax exemptions cannot be expected.

This was labor delegation week as the prime minister Wednesday met representatives of the 100,000-man Catholic labor group and the national legislative committee of the independent railway brotherhood of about 40,000 operating rail workers. Tuesday, the cabinet heard from the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.

SECURITY FIRST

The prime minister predicted there will be no appreciable reductions in defense expenditure, because of international security commitments, in reply to a CCCL suggestion of a cut in defense spending to be applied to increasing social welfare expenditures.

In reply to the railwaymen's protest at the way the government shut off a threatened general rail strike in August, Mr. St. Laurent said he would not call the move "compulsory arbitration."

A strike of 145,000 non-operating employees was called off when the prime minister informed the unions parliament would be summoned for emergency legislation if the workers were called out. The unions agreed then to arbitration of their dispute.

Mr. St. Laurent said he thinks arbitration would have been ordered by parliament, whether or not the government recommended it.

"A lot of people," he added, "were happy that there was no railway strike—both on the management and operating side."

B.C. Butter Prices Will See No Decline

Despite a record 79,000,000 pound stockpile of butter accumulated by the federal government under its price support program, there will be no reduction in prices to local consumers.

B.C. produces only about one-quarter of butter consumed within the province, the remainder being imported mostly from Alberta. It is fresh butter, not government reserve butter sold in the east.

Locally butter is selling in major retail outlets between 66 and 69 cents a pound, a general increase of one cent during the past week.

B.C. produced sufficient butter for provincial needs up to early war years, but butter production since then has not kept pace with the population rise. There are now only 12 major creameries operating in B.C., compared with 30 of a few years ago.

H. G. Robinson, secretary of the Vancouver Island Dairymen's Association said that without government stockpiles the consumer would be paying $1 a pound by spring, the surplus acting as a price balance factor.

He said that despite the extensive amounts of butter on hand in the east, the situation was far from serious. Three years ago, despite heavy surpluses, the government had to import butter from New Zealand to meet Canadian consumer demands.

Also bearing directly on the present butter stockpile was the banning of Canadian cattle from the U.S. two years ago following outbreak of hoof and mouth disease. Approximately 125,000 head a year had been shipped to the states.

The recent mild increase in local butter prices was a seasonal matter, which has been happening at this time each year, suppliers agreed.

Federal officials aid the government's selling price will be the same as last year, 61 cents a pound price variations due to freight charges to other Canadian points.

Carload lots of butter from Alberta November 5, were selling in Vancouver at 59½ cents per pound.

Vancouver Watchman Shot by Prowler
VANCOUVER (CP)—A city nightwatchman, Dan McMullin, received a bullet wound in his shoulder during a scuffle with a prowler shortly after midnight today.

His condition in hospital is good.

McMullin went to investigate noises in a yard. The prowler tackled him and escaped after firing the shot. Police later found a .22 rifle which had been stolen from the company's office.

Police have not yet said if they have a suspect or if anything else was stolen.

CONFESSONAL BOOTHS TO BE GERM PROOF

$20 OAP Boost Demanded By Senior Citizens

Vancouver Rally
Set for Dec. 3

A $20-a-month increase in old age pensions will be asked by Senior Citizens' Association of B.C. before the January sitting of parliament in Ottawa.

In formulating other policies affecting interests of pensioners, members will stage a mass meeting in Pender Auditorium, Vancouver, Dec. 3 at 1.30 p.m. Another request of parliament will be to make pensioners eligible for their pensions no matter where they eventually reside.

RIGHT, NOT GIFT

It is felt that pensioners have earned the right to their pensions and the money should not be withheld from them if circumstances compel them to live in another country.

All Vancouver area MPs will be asked to attend the meeting, hear discussion and state their proposed stands in Ottawa next year.

The increase in basic pensions will not be asked for pensioners not in actual need of more money, the association's executive decided recently.

120 to Attend NFB Film Course Scheduled Today

Two "capsule institutes" designed for persons who use films for instructional purposes are to be held here today, arranged by the Victoria representative of the National Film Board.

Charles R. Crakes, educational consultant of the DeVry Technical Institute, Chicago, was to address both afternoon and evening groups on "Current Trends in the Audio-Visual Movement."

About 120 persons were expected to attend the two sessions. The afternoon group was to be composed of provincial government, civic and industrial representatives. The evening group was to be made up of service club representatives, PTA people, and members of the local film council.

Both groups will meet at 850 Gordon Street.

BETWEEN TIMES

By MONTE ROBERTS

I have received a kind of a sort of a compliment, I think, from Mrs. J. E. M. Porter, reporter, social editor, and occasional columnist for the Cowichan Leader.

Mrs. Porter wrote to agree with Between Times' views regarding the licensing of hunters and to point out that, by co-incidence, a similar column under her by-line appeared in The Leader of the same date.

Proving that great minds, etc.
But the alleged compliment? Mrs. Porter wrote: "... when one has something to say, one should say it, don't you think? I only write when I have something to say, which isn't often."

"Your column is always enjoyed, whether you have anything to say or not."

On thinking it over, I have decided this is, indeed, a compliment.

It isn't everyone who can say nothing in a given number of well-chosen words.

My long association with politicians of all types has been largely responsible for my success in this direction.

Speaking of politicians, I see where Maj. Gen. Pearkes has launched a frontal attack on the members of the Parliamentary Press Gallery. (This is Ottawa-ese for reporters on the federal parliament beat).

Maj. Gen. Pearkes says the reporters are "spoon-fed" by releases from the government.

Actually, this is not quite the complete picture.

The reporters are spoon-fed by releases from the government. Conservatives, CCF, Social Credit, various fringe parties, and 4,962 public relations counsels representing everything from the pearl-handled buttonhook industry to the league for the preservation of the ptarmigan.

With all these releases available as sources of news, surely Maj. Gen. Pearkes doesn't expect the reporters to look a gift source in the mouth.

(Besides, the releases are wonderful for scribbling notes on the back of).

I also note Maj. Gen. Pearkes says that reporters "are rewarded with trips abroad" for presenting the government's side of the question.

Wonder if this applies on the provincial level?

Old Vic is looking a little tired these days, and I'm sure he'd like to go away on a trip.

I'm equally sure the Social Credit government would be happy to send him away.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

The Victoria Short Wave Club will meet at 2500 Foul Bay Road at 8 tonight.

Student activities at Oak Bay High School will profit by more than $1,800 realized Wednesday afternoon and evening at their bi-annual fair, attended by upwards of 1,000 parents and friends.

Speeds over 15 miles per hour on Johnson Street Bridge resulted in a $10 fine in city police court today for Dermitt Walker, 138 St. James Street.

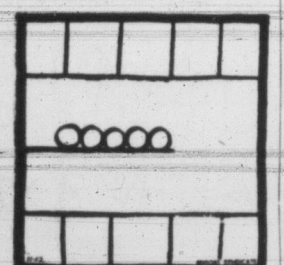

Lynn Bailey, no fixed address, was sentenced to 15 days for vagrancy when she appeared in city police court today.

For assault of his wife, who charged in court Wednesday that he had struck her with a beer bottle, Stanley D. Medier, Victoria, was given a suspended sentence by Magistrate H. C. Hall. He agreed to post a $250 good behaviour bond and to "be of good behaviour" for six months.

The 27th City of Winnipeg Battalion Association will meet at McEwan's Restaurant at 6.30 p.m. Saturday.

"I don't see any reason why I should remain" police were told when they stopped Joseph M. Tetrault, 920 Wychbury, who had driven away after a collision at Bay and Wark. Damages totalled $375, police said. Magistrate H. C. Hall fined the accused $35 for failing to remain and an additional $35 for careless driving. His license will be suspended.

"TONSIL'S VIEW OF MAN EATING PEAS WITH HIS KNIFE"

Victoria Chamber of Commerce today has an all-time high membership of 706 firms, result of an intensive membership drive covering the past few months.

Managing secretary Hector Crombie said that with increased awareness of chamber benefits, there are today even fewer retiring members than ever before.

Prairie folk will be encouraged to relax in Victoria this winter by an extensive newspaper advertising campaign by the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau in Edmonton, Regina, Saskatoon and Winnipeg. Theme of the advertising is "This Evergreen Resort."

Old Age Pensioners' No. 5 organization will meet in the K. of P. Hall at 2 p.m. December 8 instead of December 1 as originally scheduled.

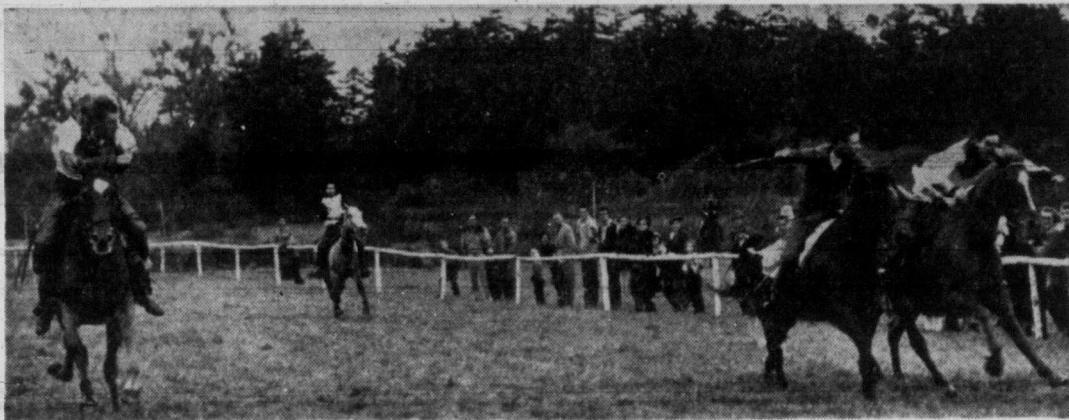

His car was making so much noise that he didn't hear the impact, said Clifford Williamson, 201 Ontario St., who was fined $35 today for leaving the scene of the accident. Damages to cars involved totalled $80. He had run into a car stopped at Yates and Ormond, October 30, police said. He was also fined $35 for careless driving and will have his license suspended. He appeared before Magistrate H. C. Hall in city police court today.

Mail arrangements for the Esquimalt based frigate HMCS New Glasgow during her current cruise as escort to the aircraft carrier HMCS Magnificent were announced today by the RCN.

Air mail for delivery at Balboa will be accepted at the Fleet Air Mail office, Esquimalt, until 2 p.m. November 20. Surface mail for long Beach will close December 4; air mail December 7.

New Glasgow is scheduled to return here December 15.

Mrs. Annie Collier, 81, 1430 Bay Street, was taken to Jubilee Hospital by city police at about 6 p.m. Thursday following a fall at her home. She is reported in fairly good condition following X-rays which revealed a fractured hip.

COMING UP FAST on the inside (far right) to win first money in a western half-mile dash at Victoria Riding Academy Thursday afternoon is Canyon Demon, ridden by Darrel Walker of Victoria.

Meet's Success Stirs Talk of Annual Race

A point-to-point horse race—Teams of three, each may be staged here annually following a successful show Thursday at Victoria Riding Academy grounds.

Officials said enthusiasm shown in the venture will result in "more of the same" but future meets probably will be held in a warmer season of the year.

Despite cool weather, a crowd of about 300 was on hand for the first show staged jointly by the academy and the Garden City Horsemen's Club.

Nine events were run off smoothly, marred by only one tumble.

MATCHED RACE

A last minute entry on the program was a matched race between Irish Pebble, owned by D. B. Carley, and Lola C. owned by Alderman Geoff Edgeworth, with Irish Pebble emerging winner.

Classes 4 and 7 on the program were steeplechase events, mounts having to run about a mile. Lieutenant-Governor Clarence Wallace's horse, Forever Amber, came into the prize money in the seventh, taking second place at $10.

The fourth event was restricted to thoroughbred horses, as was number eight, a flat race of six furlongs. Others were open to non-thoroughbreds.

Judge was Wally Williams, assisted by George Tyson; starter, Eric Crawford; clerk of course, D. B. Carey, assisted by Ken Kent.

GIRL TUMBLES

Sole casualty was youthful Marjorie Milligan, shaken up when her mount Cinnamox stumbled on the first jump of the fourth event, a one-mile point-to-point race. She was cared for by St. John Ambulance and sat out the rest of the program. Thoroughbred Cinnamox was uninjured.

Most spectators agreed the locale was well-suited to racing, the track being about 3/4 of a mile and completely turfed. Officials doubted that it could become a commercial track in spite of being well removed from residential areas and enclosed on all sides by trees and brush. It is presently on a five-year lease from Hudson's Bay Co.

RACE RESULTS

Complete results with prize money were as follows:
1. Pony race—Approximately 1/4 mile: Sierra Sioux (Ron Trickett), $7; Smokey (B.B. Trickett), $3.
2. Flat race—Approximately one-half mile: Ching (Sunny Tipton), $7; Teo (Brian Wilson), $3.
3. Western half-mile dash—western saddles: Canyon Demon (Darrel Walker), $7; Sierra Sioux (Ron Trickett), $3.
4. Point-to-point—Approximately one mile: Royal Flox (Judy Mangin), $20; Satinette (G. Amsden), $10.
5. Match race: Irish Pebble (Roy Jewell).
6. Western Wells Fargo mail.

Shaw, Veitch Contest City Liberal Office

Forrest L. Shaw and Joseph Veitch will contest the position of first vice-president at the annual meeting of the Victoria Liberal Association at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 16, at party headquarters, 1322A Government Street.

Four of the five executive positions have already been filled with G. A. A. Hebden named president; Miss C. M. Shaw second vice-president; A. H. Cox, secretary, and J. H. Brice, treasurer.

Brutal Assault Charged to Young Sailor

More Arrests Hinted In Attack on Navyman

A young sailor, Donald Russell Reynolds, was charged in city court today with the brutal assault which left another naval rating half strangled and close to death in a downtown alley early Monday.

Reynolds made no plea and was granted remand to Monday when he asked time to consult a lawyer.

Victim Lorne Pashe, 20, had been placed on the danger list after his admittance to RCN Hospital. His parents were flown here from Ontario. He is now in good condition.

First reports of the incident by police said that the injured man had also been robbed of his wrist watch. But deputy chief Harry Mercer of the city force stated today that no robbery was involved.

It was also indicated by senior police officials that two more arrests may be made in connection with the case.

The charge against Reynolds is one of assault causing grievous bodily harm.

Reynolds was arrested by city detectives at HMCS Naden Thursday.

SECOND ASSAULT

Police have been unable to link the case with a second assault of the same date which was reported on Wednesday.

O-Sm. Laurence Nilsson, RCN, said that on the same night Pashe was found, he had been stopped by two men in a car.

One said, "I don't like your looks," then jumped from the car and began to beat and kick Nilsson. The attacker got back into the car and drove away as a policeman approached.

Police have since located the owner of the car which Nilsson said was used by the pair who attacked him, but the owner has denied any knowledge of the incident.

Investigations are continuing.

Holiday Crash Wrecks Auto; Driver Bruised

Only one man was reported hurt in holiday traffic Thursday although numerous collisions were investigated by city and district police.

David Samuel Ranns, Metcosh, received bruises and lacerations to his knees following a crash at Four Mile Hill at 9 p.m. Thursday.

Cars driven in opposite directions by Ranns and William Norman Guiney, Langford, collided with such force that Colwood RCMP said one of the cars was a total wreck and the other heavily damaged.

Ranns was treated at St. Joseph's Hospital and released.

Cox Rebuts Macmillan On Tye Lights Deal

Objections to a $5,000 payment by the city for lights and other equipment at Royal Athletic Park, voiced by Ald. Robert Macmillan at a council meeting Tuesday, were answered today in an official statement by Arthur Cox, president of the Victoria Baseball and Athletic Club.

Ald. Macmillan said $5,000 was too much to pay for the lights; they had been purchased second-hand by the ball club; it would cost $3,000 to put them in working order; the light poles had not been creosoted.

"It's questionable if the city should deal with an organization that in the past has failed to live up to its obligations," he said.

Statement issued by Mr. Cox follows.

"The president and directors of the Victoria Baseball and Athletic Company Limited want to express their keen disappointment with the recent statements on liquidation of the club by Ald. Macmillan, and wish to set forth the following facts:

"1. The city of Victoria purchased the arc lights from the baseball club because it specifically reserved the right to do so in the original lease signed in 1945.

"2. Contrary to the statement of Ald. Macmillan, these lights were purchased brand new from a reputable city electrical company; at no time has there been a light failure; and the lights are now in good working order.

"3. Ald. Macmillan stated that the poles were never creosoted. The fact is that they were creosoted by the firm which installed them.

"4. The lights were offered to the city of Victoria in lieu of rentals owing two years ago but the city refused this offer.

SPENT $18,000

"5. The Victoria Baseball Club spent some $18,000 as their share of additional stands at the park, which remain as a fixed asset, the property of the city.

MAN CHOKED, ROBBED IN CAR ATTACK

Dumped Unconscious On Downtown Road

A Prospect Lake man told police he was choked into unconsciousness, robbed of $60 and a gold wrist watch, then dumped from a car in downtown Victoria early today.

Conway Jack, East Lake Road, was brought to police by Roy L. Green, 220 Linden. Green had noticed the man leaning against a pole at Fort and Lee at about 2.30 a.m.

Jack told police that he had left the Cameo Cafe at closing time and had accepted a ride from a stranger. He said the car had only been travelling about three minutes when someone who had been apparently hiding in the back seat dropped a cloth around his neck.

He said he remembered nothing until he found himself on the street at Fort and Lee.

$60 STOLEN

He described the car as a light colored '52 or '53 Chevrolet and said the driver was about 25 or 30 and wore a dark-colored corduroy zipper jacket.

The money, $60 in bills, had been taken from his wallet and his gold wrist watch, a Gruen, had been taken from his arm. He said the watch was engraved with a service number and the name Canadian Black Watch Regiment.

Police chief John Blackstock said that detectives are busy today checking the man's story.

Solarium Loses

Theft of $20 worth of cigarettes, and candy from Victoria Fish and Game Club premises near Goldstream was discovered by members of Solarium Junior League Thursday prior to setting up a refreshment stand on the Goldstream.

The girls' auxiliary has been selling refreshments to people watching the salmon run, in aid of Queen Alexandra Solarium, and use the gun club for storage purposes.

BRIGHT IDEA

Colorful City Is Jaycee Plan

Victoria's annual "Brightest Christmas Contest," will be held December 20 to 23, the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce announced today.

The contest is aimed at making city homes bright and colorful by use of decorations and lights on home exteriors. Junior chamber president Alf Heaslip said the chamber expects this year's contest to be "bigger and better than ever."

Last year there were approximately 25 entrants in the various classes, apart from the many attractively lighted homes of non-contestors.

Entry forms must be in the hands of the committee headed by Jack Jeffery by December 15. They can be obtained from the junior chamber office, 816 Wharf Street. There is no entry fee.

NEW CLASS

Competition this year includes a new group for boys and girls, between 10 and 16 years of age, in biblical scenes. The Jaycees hope thus to encourage younger persons to help make the coming Yule season brighter than ever before.

Winners in the various classes will receive merchandise prizes and cups.

As well, bus tours will be arranged to include homes of entrants.

These are the entry classifications: Completely decorated homes in which contestants vie for top honors; decorated windows or doors where decorations may be small but effective; Christmas garden lighting; a novice class for first time contestants who do not wish to compete with more experienced contestants of other years; youth's biblical scenes.

The chamber urges that all Victorians who light up their homes but don't wish to compete for prizes list their addresses regardless, to give viewers a chance to see just how pretty Victoria can be at the Christmas season.

In support of the Jaycee objective to "put Christ back into Christmas," a special trophy will be given any contestant or non-contestant and whose display best depicts the true Christmas message. This award will be judged from all displays regardless of the class entered.

Resignation Accepted By Police Commission

Suspended for Three Weeks, Juvenile Officer Quits; No Explanation Given

The resignation of Victoria juvenile officer, Arthur H. Rudge, was unanimously accepted by city police commission today.

Rudge, who was not present at the meeting, has been under suspension for almost three weeks.

The commission, headed by the mayor, refused to say why the suspension was ordered or the resignation accepted.

A member of the police force for 21 years, Rudge has been replaced temporarily by Constable Lyle D. Somers who was shifted from the traffic department. Somers has been a policeman for nine years.

It was learned that the suspension was not connected with recent council dissatisfaction with conduct of the Juvenile Court.

The mayor told the commission: "There will have to be a certain amount of readjustment of this department." But he added that he would like to leave it for the present.

Commissioner William Hamilton suggested that the need for examinations and a policy regarding service qualifications

TWO MORE ROOMS FOR THREE RS

Two additional classrooms for Strawberry Vale School are included in the school board's $3,356,715 building program which will come before ratepayers in December.

Harold Whitfield, trustee, told a parent-teacher meeting at Strawberry Vale School Wednesday evening.

Mr. Whitfield said further relief to the present crowding would be provided through the establishment of a new junior high school at Burnside-Tillamook.

Private Car Used to Nab Lawbreaker

Police commandeered the car of a passing motorist to catch one of three holiday impaired drivers who paid fines totaling $775 in city police court today.

Roy E. McPherson was charged after a chase through downtown Victoria at about 10 p.m. Thursday. A constable observed his car almost strike a bus on Douglas near Broughton.

When the car failed to stop as he blew his whistle, the officer jumped into following car of Derek Kyde Lay, Shawigan Lake School. Mr. Lay followed McPherson to Quadra and McClure. Court was told McPherson's car drove part of the time on the wrong side.

The accused was also charged with failing to have a driver's license and reportedly told the officer in that connection, that he had been driving 10 years and never been picked up.

He paid $25 for having no license and $250 for being impaired.

Fines of $250 were also paid by Andrew Saunders, 117 St. Lawrence Street, following a collision at Government and Belleville, and Robert James Clough, Cordova Bay Road, who was arrested on Pat Bay Highway.

Year in Jail For Woman on Shopping Spree

A shopping spree in which $120 in bad cheques were put in circulation resulted in a one-year jail term today for Norma Lewis, no fixed address.

The pretty young brunette was just released from Oakalla Oct. 16 where she had served six months for a similar whirlwind tour of seven women's finery stores here in May.

The 23-year-old girl, who said that she came from Nanaimo, bilked city merchants for $264 last time. In court today she pleaded guilty to obtaining shoes worth $72, cosmetics worth $16 and $31 dress.

She had been placed on a good behavior bond following a similar conviction in 1952.

Womenfolk Fight Fire At Burnside

A mother and 17-year-old daughter, using a garden hose, prevented fire from destroying their home late Thursday night.

Mrs. A. J. Helges and daughter, Berta, came home from a visit with friends to find their home at 1257 Burnside Road filled with smoke. They battled the fire themselves until members of the View Royal Fire Brigade arrived.

About $3,000 damage was done. The kitchen and living room were completely gutted.

Mr. Helges was attending a lodge meeting at the time,

No More Hitlers for Germans, Press Chief Predicts

By TONY DICKASON

There will never again be a "mad Hitler" ruling Germany and the German outlook today is completely opposed to any suggestion of war, the press chief of the foreign service division, Federal Press, Bonn, Germany, said here today.

Dr. Hans Schirmer, here on a speaking tour sponsored by the Canadian Institute of International Affairs, said "the vast majority of Germans have learned that absolute power corrupts, and that dictatorship leads to failure."

European unification was not proceeding as quickly as had been hoped because "progress has to go at the pace of the parliaments."

Europeans today see international boundaries and economic barriers as something which must be overcome. As he put it, "people are bored with economic restrictions and passport difficulties."

The move to unification must be acted on promptly, and not follow the more than two years of talk which followed the EDC treaty with resulting delays and confusion, he said.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's proposal, worked out last month in Paris, to internationalize the coal-rich Saar area, Dr. Schirmer termed "a compromise solution, that I am sure will be accepted by the German parliament."

The Saar problem, which has plagued Europe for many years, would be automatically solved under European unification with the question of boundaries no longer an issue.

Foundation for a "supernational" Europe were laid by the old League of Nations, he said, and was no mere modern conception.

There was little chance that Chancellor Adenauer, now 78, would slow up in his strong leadership of Free Germany. The chancellor was vigorous, healthy and his sole personal healthy worry was about "being hit with a car," Dr. Schirmer smiled.

The doctor's personal choice for an eventual successor to Adenauer was Minister of Finance Schaffar.

Visitors to Red-controlled East Berlin were frequently favorably impressed, he said, but this was only because the Red sector was kept as a "showpiece." Elsewhere, conditions were drab and not to be compared with conditions in West

Shop at the Public Market
For Fresh, Tempting Food

By PENNY SAVER

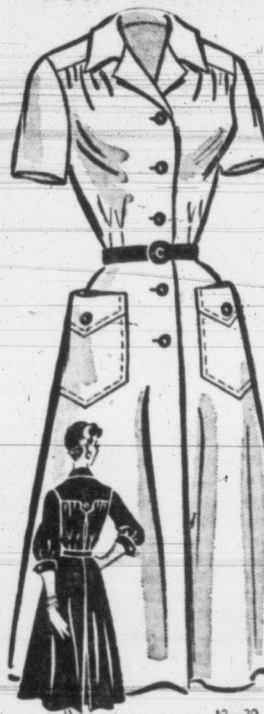

Just for a change of pace, folks, I headed towards the Public Market this week, instead of the Fort Street produce stores, to get food prices for you. I was honestly amazed at what I saw. I felt like buying up enough of that dairy and vegetable produce and of the home cooking and preserves to last our family for a week, it all looked so temptingly fresh and scrumptious.

There's nothing to take the place of newly-laid eggs... cream will go with almost any sweet dish. Price is 35 cents a cup. You know you're getting eggs at their freshest! Prices don't vary much from other stores, though. You pay 40 cents a dozen for the small ones, 35 cents a dozen for medium and 68 cents a dozen for large.

As for the chickens themselves... they're just as fresh as the eggs. No frozen ones here! You pay 55 cents a pound for roasting chicken and 40 cents a pound for boiling fowl.

You can buy fresh goat's milk at the market for 40 cents a quart and... shall I tell you? Devonshire cream! I know it's bad for the waistline, but you might splurge for once and have some with strawberry jam on your tea biscuits... or for that matter, Devonshire

German 'Auch' Hard to Say The Young Galloways Find

The Galloways are settling in to life in Wiesbaden and the following report from Edith gives a faint picture of their surroundings.

Wiesbaden, Germany.

"We've registered for German lessons every Tuesday and Thursday nights from 8 to 9.30 p.m. So far we have had just one class and it seems like it will be quite a bit of fun. Our landlady, Frau Frank, has been helping us with our homework, so we are doing pretty well.

Edith

"Sunday afternoon we took her for a long drive over to Frankfurt and back into the feldberg (literal translation—field hills)—the hills behind Wiesbaden (pronounced—Wiesbaden). They were gorgeous with the maple and chestnut trees in their autumn colors. It was also interesting to have a guide along to point out things in Frankfurt. Frau Frank went to university there and knows it very well. However, even she got lost a couple of times since bombings have changed the look of things so much.

She was going to show us where she lived a long time ago while staying with friends in Frankfurt. She had not been back there since the war, so, when we turned down the street and she looked for the house, she gasped—for there was nothing there—just a whole block, completely flattened out by bombs and with just a few foundations of houses here and there.

"Last Friday we were lucky to get tickets to the Wiesbaden Symphony concert with violin soloist, Henry H. Szeryng. It was at the Kurhaus and was very good. The concert hall (Grosser Kurhaus) is perfect size, seating about 1,500 and the acoustics are wonderful.

"There are many concert series going on in the vicinity. Wiesbaden has at least three (we bought season tickets to one of them. Our seats cost 60 cents apiece per concert and they are the second best in six categories of seats). There are operas or operettas going on every night of the week and also plays, about four nights a week. So you see, in Wiesbaden alone there is something worth seeing every night. Mainz is only 20 minutes away and it also has a famous opera company and symphony—and then there is Frankfurt! I hear Szigeti is giving two concerts there next month.

Meet Man Who Built Floating Bridge

"Met a very interesting person last week. You've read about Edward R. Murrow, news commentator? He was the one that gave some facts about McCarthy on his (Murrow's) TV show. Anyway, we met Murrow's brother. He was with the Demos and is a reserve general. He is also an engineer and the Seattle floating bridge was his 'baby'.

"Did I tell you about the PX (post exchange)? In the cafeteria you can get hamburgers for 15 cents (they were costing 35 and 40 cents in New York); a tall glass of milk for a nickel; a plate of French fries for five cents. Good Arrow shirts are only $3 and Roger bought a Botany wool suit for $56. However, shoes are a problem. They don't have much variety at the PX so I thought I'd try some German shops. But you should see their shoes! They're awful, so clumsy looking.

"I have to shop for groceries almost every day since meat and milk won't keep because we have no refrigerator here. Also, I have to carry the things home on the bus. There's one good thing about it though, the air force supplies FREE bus service and the bus comes within two blocks of our apartment.

"You should see our German teacher. She is a woman of about 40 and is a little stout. She has a good sense of humor and is very gay all through class. She sort of flops around throwing questions at us in German and we are supposed to answer in German. I think she is teaching the Berlitz method where you learn conversation right off with just a little grammar. She goes around pointing at things and saying 'Was ist das?'—pronounced 'vas is daz' (what is that?), and we answer—'Das ist der finger, arm, etc.' Of course they have masculine, feminine and neuter nouns so the article (the) has to be learned with the noun. Some people who have been here awhile are pretty quick. We learned all about menus and foods last time and how to count up to ten in German. One of the hardest things for us to do is to get the guttural sound like in 'auch.' Boy! you should hear them pronounce Bach here.

Tiny Girl Christened Recently

This charming young descendent of British Columbia pioneer families, is Patricia Ann, six-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Thomas of Victoria. Seen with her mother and wearing a family christening robe, she was baptized recently in a ceremony at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Vancouver, with Canon D. Kemp officiating. Godparents were Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Thomas, formerly of Victoria. Paternal grandparents were the late Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thomas of North Vancouver. On her mother's side the baby is a great-granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Lalonde, pioneers of Rossland and Vancouver and the late Captain and Mrs. George Anderson, also Vancouver pioneers. (Photo by Ivor Jones).

Adams, and Misses Rene Fisher, Babs Fallas, Ann Budynski, May Mitchell, Heather Rumsby, Pat Stubbs, Alma Hayden and Marilyn Hill.

Lorna Forsyth Honored

Bride-elect of this month, Miss Lorna Forsyth, was honored when office staff members at Yarrow's Ltd., entertained at a miscellaneous shower. Miss Joan Cross was hostess at her home on McNeill Avenue. A replica of a ship held gifts and a corsage of Kokomo carnations was presented to Miss Forsyth and corsages of chrysanthemums were presented to her mother, Mrs. W. Forsyth, and mother of the groom-elect, Mrs. J. Armour. Guests were Mrs. D. Cross, Mrs. N. Erskine, Mrs. D. Dool, Mrs. C. Gibson, Mrs. D. Smith, Mrs. T. Freethy, Mrs. M. Bashford, Mrs. I. Bailey, Mrs. G. Nicholson, Mrs. U. Ethell, Mrs. D. Windwood, Mrs. J. Waller, Mrs. J. Henderson, Mrs. B. Matthews and Misses Evanne Murray, Frances McCormick, Helen Egan, Jean Calder, Betty Grant, Jo-Ann Wright, Betsy Harrison, Ellen Brett and Pat Hickey.

Two More Debutantes

Names of two more debutantes have been added to the list of those young ladies who will be presented to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Clarence Wallace at the United Services Ball in the Empress Hotel on Nov. 26. They are Miss Sheila Kingham, daughter of Col. J. R. Kingham and Mrs. Kingham and Miss Helene de la Hite, daughter of the Count and Countess de la Hite. The debutante list closes today.

Post-Nuptial Shower

Mrs. Jack Milburn, the former Miss Sandra Lamont, was honored at a post-nuptial shower given by members of the Victoria Girls' Drill Team, of which Mrs. Milburn is a former member. Miss Lorna Forsyth was hostess at the party which took place at the home of the bride's parents. An attractively decorated "dream house" held gifts and guests enjoyed piano solos, singing and dance numbers by members of the team. Those present were Mrs. Olga Kowaiyk, Mrs. Mary Doble, Mrs. Frances Lamont, Mrs. Donna Wright and Misses Elsie Jernslet, Joan Cross, Amy Koller, Lucille McBurney, Muriel Jennings, Audrey McCormick, Tess Stewart, Joan Rogers, Corinne Smith, Jean Sim, Louella Kalk, Eunice Kalk, Joan Steele, Anne Sprinkling, Gwen Mason, Margaret Creasey, Betty Jackson and Janet Sim.

Mrs. Milburn was also presented with a steam iron from her co-workers at the Royal Bank of Canada, Douglas Street, on the occasion of her marriage.

Couple Say Wedding Vows In Bamfield Cable Hall

A wedding at Bamfield, B.C., recently united Christine Leslie Hughes with Donald Elson Abney. Rev. Arthur Holmes performed the ceremony in the Cable Hall, which was decorated for the occasion with a profusion of autumn flowers and evergreen boughs.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hughes, Bamfield, granddaughter of Mr. W. E. Rockingham, Halifax, and niece of Major-Gen. John Rockingham.

During the signing of the register the bride's aunt, Mrs. Gerald Atkins sang a solo. The bridal music was played by Bert Baxendale.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a model gown of French lace with frills of tulle. Neckline was embroidered with pearls and mother of pearl sequins and her head-dress was a wreath of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white carnations, chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Mary-Lynne Palmer, Victoria, who wore a gown of pale blue nylon net trimmed with rhinestones. Sister of the bride, Miss Allison Hughes, and Miss Mary-Lou Yorke were little flower girls, wearing frocks of pink and blue organdy. Wreaths of assorted flowers were worn in their hair and they carried nosegays of pink and white chrysanthemums.

Ernest T. Abney, Victoria, brother of the groom, was best man. Douglas Sommers and Marcel Perras were ushers.

At a reception in Cable Station Library, G. M. Atkins, uncle of the bride, proposed the toast.

Mrs. Abney donned a pink and navy blue fleck suit with loganberry topcoat and navy accessories for travelling on a honeymoon to Qualicum, Victoria and Vancouver. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Abney will live at Bamfield.

Daughters of Nile Raise Money for Shrine Hospital

Five hundred dollars was realized at a bazaar held recently by Miriam Temple, Daughters of the Nile, in K of P Hall. Proceeds will be used for work of this organization in Shriner's crippled children's hospitals.

General convener Mrs. Thelma Randall introduced Mrs. Bessie Bayliss, Queen of Miriam Temple, who welcomed guests. She spoke of artificial limbs and braces bought by the Order every year for crippled children on their discharge from hospital.

Yellow and green, colors of the Order, were used in decorations in the hall. Bridge was convener by Mrs. Lillian Clarke and Mrs. Grace Addams; tea was in charge of Mrs. Jean Kempton and acting as servants were Mrs. Mae Jenkinson and Mrs. Margaret Morrison, Mrs. Josephine Watson, Mrs.

Martha Parfitt, Mrs. Margaret Townsend and Miss Eleanor Niven.

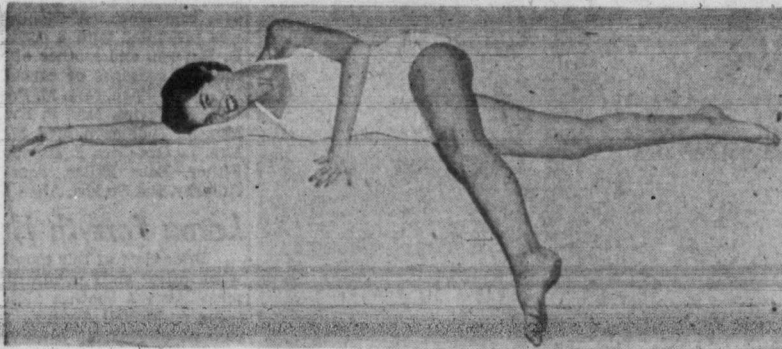

Still conveners were Mrs. Ann Bagattin, assisted by Mrs. Norah Savage and Mrs. Flora Irvine; Mrs. Vera Foster assisted by Mrs. Betty Brown and Mrs. Carrie Savage; Mrs. Florence Flaherty assisted by Mrs. Lura Fry; Mrs. Vera Magrath assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Kirkpatrick; Mrs. Ella Grant assisted by Mrs. Edna Davies, Mrs. Lily Andrew and Mrs. Gertrude Stokes; Mrs. Sally Armstrong, Mrs. Amy Pready, Mrs. Lillian Knapp, Mrs. Jessie Meiss and Mrs. Mabel Birnie.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

This exercise will reduce fat hips.

Husband Wins His Point; She's 20 Pounds Heavy

Q—"I would like to know if I am overweight. My husband says I am but I do not think so. I am 5 feet 2 inches tall and weigh 148 pounds. My bust measures 34 inches, waist 26 inches and hips 36 inches."

A.—Your husband is right. You are overweight, about 20 pounds, however, your measurements are in good proportion.

Q—"Please tell me what you think of my figure. I am 13 years old. I am 5 feet 1 1/2 inches tall and weigh 97 pounds. My bust measures 31 inches, waist 24 inches and hips 32 1/2 inches."

A.—Your weight is correct; maybe four pounds, underweight. When your bust fills out a little more and your waist slims down a bit you will be fine. Not bad now.

Q—"I am writing you a short letter to ask you what I should do to get a bit slimmer. I am 15 years old, 5 feet 2 inches tall and weigh 140 pounds. My bust measures 32 inches, waist 27 inches and hips 39 inches, and I've got a big tummy, believe me."

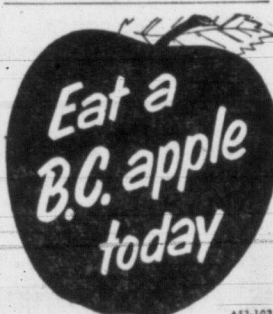

A.—You are quite a lot overweight but you must be very careful about how you diet. You have not yet reached physical maturity and a well-balanced diet is especially important to you. Cut down on the amounts you eat and cut out such high-calorie items as cream, pastry, candy, fried foods, salad dressings and oils. Cut down on the amount of butter or margarine you use and substitute fresh fruit for dessert. You should also take hip-slimming exercises like this one. Lie on your left side. Brace yourself by putting your right hand on the floor. Swing your right leg forward and backward. On the forward swing the foot should, when you get limber, come near to the bracing hand. Be sure to get your swing from the hip, not the knee. After doing this 10 times, turn over on your right side. Swing your left leg forward and backward in the same way.

Q—"I am 14 years old and weigh 150 pounds. I am only 5 feet tall. I think you, of all people, will know how unhappy and miserable I am. My mother does not take this too seriously, although she would like to have me lose some. I was so unhappy that she finally took me to our family doctor but he gave me some vague advice and said I would outgrow it. My mother and her sisters didn't! What can I do? It is spoiling all my fun!"

A.—Perhaps your doctor had some special reason for saying what he did but I cannot imagine what it was. I would get another medical opinion. It seems to me that you should have more help.

In the meantime I can give you some general rules which can't hurt you and may turn the trick.

Eat a well-balanced diet. You need it at your age. You need milk and meat and fruit and vegetables, eggs and whole grain products and citrus juice and some starch and sugar. Pour the cream off of your milk, avoid fried foods and candy, ice cream and soda fountain mixtures, gravy, jams and jellies and desserts. Otherwise eat well. Go easy on bread and butter.

THOUSANDS OF DESERTED SPOUSES ACROSS CANADA

CALGARY (CP)—There are at least 1,000 deserted spouses in Calgary and a conservative estimate for the nation would be 50,000, W. Kent Power, QC, Canadian divorce authority, told a meeting of the Canadian Club here recently.

In a talk in which he branded the existing divorce law as "barbarous," he called for adoption of the Herbert law of divorce which England accepted in 1937.

Before that, Britain was guided by the 1857 Divorce Act which is the law in Canada and allows only one ground for divorce—adultery.

Desertion leads to illicit unions, he continued, and the children of such homes only too often swell the ranks of juvenile delinquency.

AS WE LIVE

Make Tot's Birthday Part of Christmas

By ELIZABETH B. HURLOCK, PhD

The problem of what to do when a birthday comes close to Christmas is troubling the mother who writes:

(Q)—"Our second daughter, who is 1½ years old, has a birthday on Dec. 26. She is bound to receive fewer gifts than her four-year-old sister, whose birthday is in July. What is the best way to handle her birthday so she won't feel short-changed or cheated simply because her birthday is so near Christmas?"

(A)—"Since your younger daughter is now so young, you can be sure that she will not actually count the gifts she receives. Therefore, this is a good time to establish the precedent of celebrating her birthday right on Christmas Day."

When she is old enough to understand the true meaning of Christmas, she will be proud to have a birthday so close to Jesus' birthday. She will like the idea of celebrating her birthday at the same time.

As for gifts, do your children receive many birthday gifts except from the members of the immediate family? Few children do, especially when they are older.

Therefore you can buy her birthday presents and Christmas presents at the same time. Be sure to let her know which are which. If there is any feeling of being slighted, it is likely to come from your older daughter, who will soon begin to compare the number of gifts she receives with those received by her younger sister on Christmas Day.

Another way you can make the day seem especially significant for her is to have her birthday cake for Christmas dinner. This will further emphasize the fact that it is really her birthday as well as Christmas. If you start this practice right now, both your children will become so accustomed to it that they will accept it as a regular part of their everyday lives as they grow older and become really birthday-conscious.

If you have parties on your older daughter's birthdays, you can start to have a combination of Christmas at-home and parties for your younger daughter as soon as she is old enough.

YOUNG GREEN PEAS ROYAL CITY

Add Zip to Supper With Casserole

Mexican macaroni is a lively dish, inexpensive, and has eye appeal.

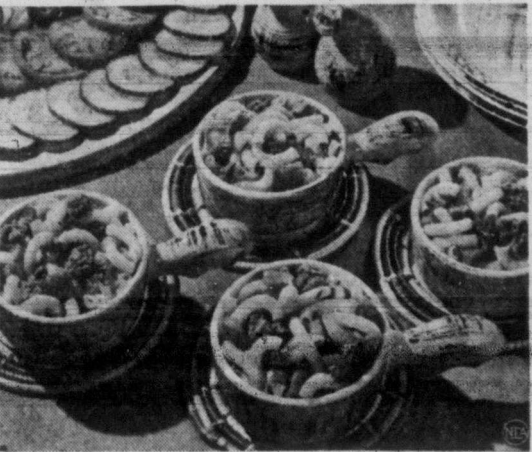

MEXICAN MACARONI CASSEROLES

One tablespoon salt, 3 quarts boiling water. 8 ounces elbow macaroni (2 cups), 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 pound ground round steak, 2 pimentos, chopped, ½ cup chopped onion, 1 medium-sized green pepper, diced, 1½ cups tomato juice, 1 tablespoon chili powder, salt to taste, ½ cup grated processed Canadian cheese.

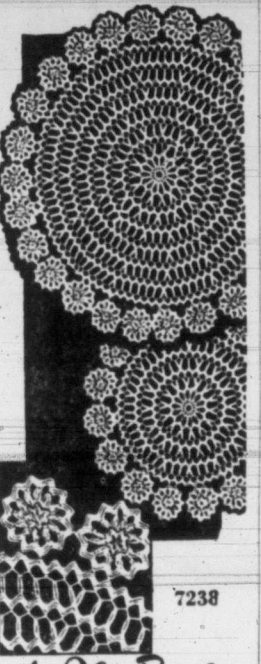

Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add macaroni so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Melt butter or margarine over low heat; add meat and brown well. Add pimentos, onions and green pepper and cook over low heat until tender. Add tomato juice and chili powder; cover and cook over low heat 20 minutes. Combine meat mixture and cooked macaroni; season to taste with salt. Makes 4-6 servings.

DEPENDS ON RICE

The whole economy of Thailand, old Siam, depends on good markets for surplus rice crops.

Mexican Macaroni Casserole, a lively dish, is an eating favorite.

JOHNSON'S HARD GLOSS GLO-COAT FOR ALL FLOORS Self Polishing

YES... IT'S SUPER

Hard Gloss Glo-Coat WEARS ON AND ON WHERE SUBSTITUTES WEAR OFF!

Johnson's Wax has improved the formula!

New brightness! New long-life shine! Improved Hard Gloss Glo-Coat gives you floors so shiny and easy to clean that you'll have lots more leisure time. It introduces an exclusive formula that resists scuffing and stays bright under damp-mopping like no substitute can! It dries with a finish so hard your floors are bound to stay brighter for six, seven, even up to ten weeks! Use it from now on and you won't have to wax so often! Improved Hard Gloss Glo-Coat is now at your store. Accept no substitute! It's in the regular yellow can with the green band.

Ad. 868

You can test floor polishes exactly the way the experts do it at Johnson's Wax famous Research Tower. Apply Hard Gloss Glo-Coat to half a kitchen floor and put any substitute brand on the other half.

A dozen kitchen parties won't give your floor the rugged wear the Johnson's Wax test floor gets daily. For six weeks, hundreds walk on it and it's regularly damp-mopped. Then comes the Gloss Meter test...

This photoelectric device proves eyes don't deceive. Just as your own floor will show after weeks of traffic and damp-mopping, Hard Gloss Glo-Coat scores a brightness rating of 16... the substitute polish a 4.

TRY IT! New formula Hard Gloss Glo-Coat now on your dealer's shelves, in the regular yellow can with the green band. ENDS SCUFFED-UP FLOORS

CHIEF OF EUROPEAN STEEL, COAL QUIT

LUXEMBOURG (AP)—Jean Monnet announced Thursday he is resigning as top executive of the European Coal and Steel Community—the Schuman plan. He said he wanted "entire freedom of action and speech for the realization of European unity."

Monnet, 66, a leading French expert on international business and finance for more than a generation, fathered the community which Europeanized the coal and steel industries of six nations. His resignation as president of its high authority was a surprise. It takes effect next Feb. 10, when a new president and vice-president will be elected.

Monnet has been president since the community went into business last year and undoubtedly could have been elected for another two years. He was known to have been deeply disappointed by French rejection of the European Defense Community plan for a unified West European army.

HI-FI HEAVEN

Tonal Perfection Is New Shop's Goal

High fidelity recording has come to Victoria.

Harmony House, on Broughton Street, next to the Royal Theatre, is open for business, selling nothing but "hi-fi" recordings and record players.

According to its proprietor, Henry Stubbings, who operates the shop with his wife, Marjorie, it is the first such business in Canada, and the only one on the west coast north of San Francisco.

And whether or not it is the first, anyone who visits the store will agree that high fidelity is the ultimate in recording electronics.

Mr. Stubbings, in the recording business for 35 years, demonstrated two of his "hi-fi" sets.

B.C. Farmers Escape Sharp Income Drop

The marketing branch of the provincial government agricultural department said today B.C. farmers have largely escaped the impact of a sharp drop in national farm income.

The department's markets bulletin said farm income figures for 1954 in the province are "not likely to provide too optimistic an outlook," but that B.C.'s diversified agriculture has softened the blow.

Tree and small fruits industries will undoubtedly show a drop," said the bulletin, although the apple crop seems likely to end up at a satisfactory figure.

Potatoes will show a better return than 1953's depressed levels, but tomatoes are down sharply. Poultry and eggs: Little change, with prices down, and volume up.

"Forage crops are not expected to show a particularly good return, but dairying has had a fairly satisfactory year, all factors considered," it said.

"Like poultry, dairy prices will show a drop, but increased volume will take up most of the slack."

Mrs. R. A. Foulis, Former Victorian, Dies at Kelowna

Mrs. Margaret Avery Foulis, wife of former city hall employee, R. A. Foulis, died at her home in Kelowna on Oct. 31.

Mrs. Foulis, born in London, England, came to Victoria 40 years ago and moved with her husband to Maple Bay when he retired. After living for a while in Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. Foulis spent two years in New Zealand before moving to Kelowna.

She is survived by her husband; one son, Robert, in Vancouver; and four grandchildren.

Medical Fraternity Accepts 2 Victorians

Two Victorians, Katherine Diane Sawyer and Walter MacDonald, will be among 17 University of B.C. medical students initiated today into Alpha Omega Alpha, honorary medical society at UBC.

Twelve faculty members will be initiated at the same time.

Dr. Walter L. Biering, international president of Alpha Omega Alpha, from Des Moines, Iowa, will attend to formally install the UBC chapter of the society.

NEWS BRIEFS

Barry Thomas Rushworth, 1821 Cook, paid $25 in city police court Wednesday for having no liability insurance on his car while he was operating it as a minor. He told the court he had been planning to junk the car.

A 16-year-old girl who was found with beer in her possession at a Langford dance was placed on probation by Magistrate A. I. Thomas in Colwood RCMP court.

She must report every Saturday for three months to Colwood RCMP detachment and unless accompanied by her parents she must be home by 9:30 every night. She was also assessed $5 court costs.

Executive of the retail merchants' group of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce will discuss institution of a city "holly day" scheduled for December 11 among city merchants, at a board-room meeting Friday, November 19.

Speed-Readers Race Down Page In Eye-Catching College Course

By TONY DICKASON

"You write? How interesting. I read." is an ancient adage which today can be re-stated with aplomb by 17 serious-minded, bright-eyed "students"—ages 25 to 60ish—taking a "speed-read" course at Victoria College.

And read they do, at a rate designed to make the average iris spin counter-clockwise.

The idea the eye-catching training is to take an average reader and make him or her a fast reader. At the start of the 10-week, twice-weekly training period, the class slogged along at an average 190 words per minute (hereinafter called WPM). Today they can glare through verbiage at 300 WPM, and make sense out of sentences flashed on the screen at a rate of 550 WPM.

The gently spoken man conducting the course—often with an air of controlled amusement—is Dr. George Green, a former school principal in Victoria, who himself admits "I'm not a fast reader."

His class is made up of well-established businessmen and business ladies of the city. After tests on the subject they act just like lesser-age pupils with such remarks as "How did you do on that last one, Jim? I only got four right."

TYRO LEFT BEHIND

Not being accustomed to the training, we were unprepared for a yarn entitled "Will They Ever Climb Mount Everest?" flashed on the screen for speedy scanning and following questions. All we got out of it is that Everest has obviously been climbed since the story was written, that a Lamminger is a bearded vulture, and that the state of Nepal too rugged for horses.

The story was churned through a sort of projector called a "Controlled Reader."

Following the conquest of Everest, groups of numbers were whipped out onto the screen giving bags of time for students to note them down. These were five to seven digit numbers timed to appear for one-fiftieth to one-hundredth of a second.

One eagle-eyed gentleman in the rear pew got most of them. A couple in the class just gave up when seven digit numbers flicked. Controlling this process was another mixed-up projector called a Tachistoscope, actually a flash meter.

NUMBERS GAME

It was a type of numbers game, but we couldn't see the numbers. Several more conscientious students groaned aloud as they, too, apparently missed out in preception and retention.

"The Great Australian Trek" was then thrown line by line on the screen at 550 WPM. Of the 11 questions asked by Dr. Green following the showing, we got 10 correct. We read the story two years ago in Harper's Magazine, which may have helped.

Then single sentences were given the treatment at one-hundredth of a second. Main personal error in this test was the fact this gentle reader thought the sentence "Smart Women Weave Wool" read "Such Women Annoy me," Dr. Green indicated Freudian slips are fairly common.

50% IMPROVEMENT

It is the first time the course has been tried in Victoria, and the current one will wind up before Christmas. However, it is tentatively planned to have another go following the Yule season.

Dr. Green said there was a 50 per cent improvement in reading ability among those taking the course.

A fast reader can mull through 300 WPM, while the average businessman hits a comparatively low 200 to 240 WPM, the doctor said. The idea of the course is to speed up reading habits of people who can already read without moving their lips—of considerable value to those who must go through considerable paper work daily.

Reading ability too frequently stops at the Grade Six level, he said.

COURSE COST? $25.

Among students are two personnel managers of larger Victoria businesses, one absolutely top executive, a secretary and a government employee.

Dressmaker Wills $100,000 to Man Met in Elevator

OSHKOSH, Wis. (UP)—An Oshkosh dressmaker who felt her relatives neglected her has left an estate of nearly $100,000 to a man she knew only four hours.

A settlement reached Thursday gave Joseph Kogut of Cuyler, N.Y., the bulk of Margaret Jorgenson's estate—$97,864.

Kogut and Miss Jorgenson met in a Chicago hotel elevator four years ago. They started talking, had lunch together, and parted.

Miss Jorgenson, once a prominent dressmaker here, died July 11, 1951, at the age of 66, without ever seeing Kogut again. But they had corresponded and her will makes Kogut the sole beneficiary.

A subscription public library was opened at Galt, Ont., as early as 1836.

Soap Wrappers' Jig Hits Girls in British Plants

LONDON (Reuters)—The girl at the factory bench began to sway, her feet and hands moved rhythmically, fierce jerks shook her whole body uncontrollably.

The soap wrappers' jig, Britain's latest and most mysterious occupation disease, had caught up with her.

The jig is not considered dangerous by medical science, now probing its causes and effects. In fact, some of its victims like it. They say it's as good as jitter-bugging.

It comes into the same class as housemaid's knee, tennis elbow and writer's cramp. The main difference between the new disease and these complaints is that the jig really isn't painful.

The jig first attacked 15 girls in a soap factory. They found that once their muscles picked up the rhythm of their job—wrapping bars of soap at the rate of three per minute—they began moving faster and faster and could not stop until they got away from the wrapping table.

The management called in the Medical Research Council.

"Spectacular... most interesting, medically," said the experts in a report issued today.

The experts now are attempting to determine why some girls pick up the jig and others do not.

Legion's Brief Asks Peacetime Conscription

Canada Only Nation In NATO Without It
OTTAWA (CP)—Peace-time military conscription in Canada was urged on the government Thursday by the 215,000-member Canadian Legion.

The Legion's annual brief was presented to the cabinet four hours after the ceremony at the National War Memorial honoring Canada's 100,000 war dead.

It was presented by Very Rev. John Anderson, MC, Legion president.

The brief said: "We have stressed the Legion's conviction that scientific and world developments have made Canada's initial position in the event of war much more precarious than it was at the outset of either the First or Second World War."

"Members of the Legion... still are disturbed by the fact that Canada is the only major nation of NATO that does not have compulsory military service. The Legion believes that in the world today this is unrealistic and dangerous to our country."

TRAINED NUCLEUS

The Legion advocated: 1. Compulsory selective service in the active forces "for a period long enough to train a substantial defense organization, without crippling the economy of the country in the process."

2. Service by those discharged or released from the active forces for a definite period in the reserves so that there will be a continuing trained nucleus in the militia.

The Legion banged away at the government for the umpteenth time on war veterans' allowances.

It urged again that WVA for the some 40,000 recipients—"burned-out" veterans and their dependents—be increased to $60 from $50 a month for single persons and to $120 from $90 for married persons.

It also reiterated its request that the ceilings on permissible income for WVA recipients be raised to $1,200 from $720 a year for single persons and to $2,000 from $1,200 for married persons.

SUFFER HARDSHIP

"It seems hardly possible that a human being can keep body and soul together in this day of inflated living costs if he is limited to an annual income of $720 if single and $1,200 if married," the nine-page brief said.

The Legion also urged that disability pensions be made effective from date of application. The Legion also requested that the pension act be amended so that, where a pension applicant who served in a war theatre is found to have a disability resulting from an injury or disease not recorded on his medical examination on enlistment, such injury or disease be presumed to have occurred or started after enlistment.

Krushchev Assumes Stalin Role In Checking Anti-Religionists

BY DON DALLAS

LONDON (Reuters)—A squat, heavy-set Ukrainian, Nikita S. Khrushchev, is revealed openly today as a power behind the throne of Premier Georgi Malenkov's regime in Soviet Russia.

He signed a decree issued by party's central committee and splashed across three columns of Pravda, warning party officials to avoid offending the feelings of churchgoers when they campaign against religion. The signature showed more clearly than any other recent indication the growing power and influence of the first secretary of the party.

Previously only Stalin had issued his personal signature over a party decree. And in the latter years of his regime Stalin seldom did so, reserving the device for matters of supreme importance.

The personal signature of Khrushchev appears to run contrary to the declared policy of "collective leadership." Under this, theoretically, no one leader should gain precedence over another.

Malenkov is, of course himself a member of the central committee of the party which formally issued the decree, but Pravda, the daily organ of the party, did not feature his name in connection with it.

The decree itself is of considerable importance.

It shows that the Kremlin has decided not to risk a head-on clash with the churches of Russia which, judging from many recent indications in the Soviet press, have been increasingly gaining adherents, including many young people.

The decree indicates that for the time being at least the anti-religious campaign will be limited to "persuasion" by propaganda.

The fact that it has been found necessary to issue such a decree seems to imply that party zealots in Russia have been overstepping the mark in the campaign.

COLDWELL SEES ISRAEL IN COMMONWEALTH

OTTAWA (BUP)—CCF leader M. J. Coldwell speculated today on the possibility that "some day" the new state of Israel might become a member of the British Commonwealth.

Coldwell, back from two weeks in Israel, said several newspapers there had carried correspondence backing the idea of Israel joining the Commonwealth. These letters to the editors were a continuing thing, he said.

Prince Charles' Sixth Birthday Sunday

BY JOHN DUDMAN

LONDON (Reuters) — A wide-eyed little boy and a load of birthday presents. In the back seat were Prince Charles, who will be six on Sunday, and his sister, Princess Anne, 4.

Later, at the royal lodge at Sandringham, Queen Elizabeth gave them a hug and prepared to weather two days of questions about the birthday presents.

LIKES READING

Among the gifts are miniature cars, jigsaw puzzles and books. Since a tutor was assigned to him a year ago, Charles has learned to read so well that every bedtime he insists on reading brightly-covered books to his mother and his father.

British boxing promoter Jack Solomons, also sent a boxing outfit to Buckingham Palace for the prince, but it was not known whether this had been taken to Sandringham. It was rumored last month that the boy was going to take boxing lessons but palace officials declared this was not true.

Solomons said Thursday the boxing outfit included a pair of gloves, boxing shorts and "a copy of a championship certificate which fighters are given when they win a title."

Queen Elizabeth left Buckingham Palace only a few hours earlier than her son. The Duke of Edinburgh will go to the lodge today for the birthday dings.

It will be the first time in two

Doctor Panel Sure Smoking One Cause of Lung Cancer

TORONTO (CP)—Doctors are sure that cigarette smoking is one of any noxious fumes—a cause of lung cancer, but not whether tobacco smoke or in the only cause, says Dr. W. G. Cosbie, medical director of the Ontario Cancer Treatment and Research Foundation.

Dr. Cosbie led a panel discussing lung cancer Wednesday before the autumn meeting of the Toronto branch of the Canadian Cancer Society, Dr. O. H. Warwick, medical director of the Canadian Cancer Society, and Dr. Norman Delarue, chairman of the surgical section of the Toronto Academy of Medicine, were the other panel members.

"The theory that smoking causes lung cancer is not a new one," said Dr. Warwick. "But what we now realize, is that just as eating, drinking or driving your car is dangerous in excess," said Dr. Cosbie. "But let's not over-emphasize the danger."

Former BISCO Head Retires

George A. Ross, former superintendent of Boys' Industrial School at Coquitlam has been declared by medical authorities unable to fill any post within the civil service prior to his compulsory retirement.

An order-in-council approved Wednesday by cabinet said Mr. Ross was "incapacitated due to physical disability" to take another government job before his February, 1955, compulsory retirement.

The cabinet set his retirement date as of September 30.

The BISCO superintendent was suspended following a probe of the juvenile detention home by a citizen's committee appointed by health minister Eric Martin.

Plaque Honoring Memory of 115 War Dead Unveiled at Vic. High

"Their bodies are buried in peace, but their names live forever."

Remembrance Day service Wednesday afternoon. Victoria High School student body, school band, staff members and special guests took part in the ceremony, and heard Lt. Col. F. T. Fairley, M.P., present the address.

"It has been the practice of many today to criticize the younger generation," he said. "I have never been one of those, because many are the youths who have fought a bitter battle."

He said the ceremony marked two distinct purposes: to honor the dead, and to dedicate "ourselves anew to their way of life and uphold it."

Oldest member of the teaching staff, H. Cumberbirch, laid a wreath at the base of the plaque bearing names of students who fell in the First World War, and student council Dick Pomeroy laid one on the Government Irks Farmer

OTTAWA (CP)—A red-faced federal district commission has restored to an outraged farmer a little wooden building which it mistakenly dragged off his property.

Not only did the commission restore the 8'x12' structure, visited by both sexes from time to time, but it did itself proud by providing a better foundation.

About a month ago the government agency which looks after federal government property in the Ottawa area purchased an acre of land 12 miles north of here.

On the property were three cottages, which the commission put up for sale with the usual condition: The buildings must be removed.

The purchaser pointed to a small, windowless building near one cottage and asked if that went with the property. The agent said he supposed it did. The cottages and little building were removed.

A few days later a protest reached the commission. The little building didn't belong to the sold property; in fact, it wasn't even on it. The invisible boundary between the sold land and adjoining farm ran between the cottage and the little building.

The commission hastily made amends.

Jane Powell, deliciously happy with her groom, Howard Keel, sings "Wonderful, Wonderful Day," little knowing what lies in wait for her at her husband's ranch, where she will be housekeeper for seven brothers! (OSCAR CLASS) "SEVEN BRIDES FOR SEVEN BROTHERS" (Royal)—Not only is this MGM production 1954's best musical, but one would have to go back three years to "An American in Paris" or, even further, to 1943's "Anchors Aweigh," to find one that could come anywhere near matching it.

It has all that a good musical should have—youth, vivacity, good music, catchy lyrics, top-notch choreography, stunning sets and enchanting photography—and wide-screen CinemaScope too.

But best of all, "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers" has a host of new, gay young faces, the owners of which can dance like demons and sing tolerably well, so that the film does not depend altogether on the excellence of the stars, Jane Powell and Howard Keel.

lage and carry off the women of their choice.

AS THEY COME THROUGH the snow-laden mountain pass, all fighting and scuffling in the cutter, the girls' screams and the brothers' exultant shouts cause an avalanche that blocks the pass so that avenging kinsmen can't catch up to them. The girls and boys are then on their own until spring and the hilarious climax.

Critics of this column have come to believe that we don't like musical films because our ratings, with very few exceptions, have been low. This is because we don't think that the average musical comedy offered these days is very musical or very funny. But we honestly think this one is. Hence the rating.

IT HAS THE SONGS (BY Johnny Mercer and Gene de Paul) such as Keel's (in magnificent voice throughout the show) "When You're in Love"; Jane and the boys' "Goin' Co'tin'"; "June Bride" and "Sobbin' Woman."

And as for the laughs—they're spontaneous and as fresh as the smell of new-mown hay carried on the flying feet of six athletic young men and six beautiful (and athletic) girls. All of which are a credit to the artful hand of director Stanley ("Singin' in the Rain") Donen.

In conclusion: "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers" is the type of musical comedy that you see over and over again with undiminished enjoyment.

$3.6 Million Offered to Farmers By Pool

REGINA (RUP)—Delegates to the 30th annual meeting of the Saskatchewan Wheat-Pool has recommended that the organization distribute surplus earnings amounting to $3,602,485 to its members.

Under the plan, nearly $1,500,000 would be paid out in cash on the basis of one cent per bushel of grain delivered to the pool elevators during the 1953-54 crop year. The remainder of the refund would be credited to the individual accounts of pool members.

The cash dividend will go out to growers early in 1955, probably in February or March.

B.C.'s First Citizen Leads in Tribute

First to lay a wreath at Parliament Square Remembrance Day service Thursday was Lieutenant-Governor Clarence Wallace, CBE. He was followed by representatives of the armed services, bereaved mothers, Canadian Legion, and many private individuals, who turned out under threatening skies to attend the 23-year-old ceremonies highlighted by a military-civilian parade unmatched for size in Victoria on past Remembrance Days. 126,853 IMMIGRANTS IN FIRST 9 MONTHS

OTTAWA (CP)—Immigrants arriving in Canada in the first nine months of this year slightly outnumbered newcomers in the same period of 1953.

The immigration department announced today the 1954 figure was 126,853, compared with 125,098, an increase of about 1 per cent.

The largest contingent—36,111—came from the British Isles. British Columbia was the destination of 9,645 of the immigrants.

SPCA CALLS 'FOWL!'

Bat-Swinging Hen Ruled Underweight

Operators of a display on view at the Hudson's Bay Company store today were ordered by the SPCA, Victoria branch, to remove one of four hens from a display because it was underweight.

Robin Dunsmuir, SPCA president, took a poultry inspector to the store to examine the display, that consists of hens tripping a trigger that causes a baseball bat to hit a ball. If the ball travels the full length of the miniature baseball "diamond," another switch is closed and a device drops a few grains of corn within reach of the hen.

Although only one hen is on view at a time, four hens are trained to operate the gadget, and are known to the public as "Casey at the Bat."

"Feed it," Mr. Dunsmuir ordered after having seen the one hen he considered somewhat peaked in appearance.

"These hens are starved for 24 hours before being put on display so they will perform," Mr. Dunsmuir said.

"What they do is tug at a little rubber worm on the bat that operates the switch," he said. "If the ball is knocked for a home run, they have to run down the cage for a few kernels of corn."

"It's frustrating for them," he said.

The display is one of hundreds prepared by a United States firm for rental to advertisers. It has been on view here since Saturday.

Keep Out of Politics Peron Warns Priests

BUENOS AIRES (Reuters)—The Bishop of Santa Fe, Monsignor Nicolas Fassolino, left here for Rome today 24 hours after Argentine President Juan Peron accused him and other prelates of political intrigue.

Peron warned Catholic priests Wednesday night to keep out of politics and threatened to close down the Argentine section of the world-wide organization Catholic Action "unless it sticks to its avowed aims."

3,000 Victorians At Cenotaph Rites

Beneath leaden skies Thursday Victorians mourned their dead of two World wars and the Korea conflict.

Three thousand braved chilling winds and rain squalls to pay their respects in traditional rites at the Cenotaph in Parliament Square.

Five other Services of Remembrance were held during the day—at Esquimalt Cenotaph, attended by 600; at the Canadian Scottish memorial in Pioneer Square; at Oak Bay's Cenotaph in Uplands Park; at Royal Canadian Navy's HMCS Venture school for officer-cadets; and in the Roman Catholic cathedral, St. Andrew's.

Taking part in the Cenotaph service, arranged by Canadian Legion, were old and young veterans (with the former predominating) and detachments from navy, army and air force units here, together with a platoon of RCMP constables and army, navy and air force cadets and Boy Scouts.

HMCS Naden band headed the procession and provided the music for the hymns sung during the rites.

A gun salute by Royal Canadian Artillery, Esquimalt Garrison, marked the beginning and end of the two-minute silence at 11 a.m.

The half-hour memorial service included a lament played by Pipe-Major A. Pollock and members of the Canadian Scottish (Princess Mary's) regimental band.

Rev. Canon F. E. M. Tomalin, former RCAF chaplain and now minister of St. Matthias Church, led the prayers, and Helen Wilson led the singing of hymns.

Wreaths were laid at the base of the monument after "The Last Post" was sounded and the National Anthem sung. Placing a wreath on behalf of the Queen was Lieutenant-Governor Wallace, on behalf of the government, Hon. Ray Williston, minister of education, and for the city, the mayor.

Representatives of civil and service groups followed with their commemorative wreaths before the Naden band played "The Queen" and the lieutenant-governor's party left for the Empress Hotel.

On the stand with him were Rear-Admiral J. C. Hibbard, flag officer Pacific coast; Mr. Williston, Col. R. B. Longridge, Canadian Legion zone commander, and Col. J. C. Cave, officer commanding Esquimalt Garrison.

The half-hour memorial service included a lament played by Pipe-Major A. Pollock and members of the Canadian Scottish (Princess Mary's) regimental band.

Adenauer Faces Cabinet Revolt On Rearmament

BONN, Germany (UP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's rebellious coalition cabinet refused today to approve the German rearmament agreements negotiated recently in Paris.

The deadlocked cabinet referred the measures—including the highly controversial agreement on the coal-steel Saarland border area—to a five-man cabinet commission for further study.

The deadlock developed suddenly and unexpectedly.

Adenauer had called his cabinet together to approve bills which were to have been submitted to the West German parliament for ratification of the measures which would restore German sovereignty, make her a member of a new west European union and rearm 500,000 West Germans for the west's defense against Communist aggression.

The cabinet ministers balked.

Disagreement on the measures was feared likely to upset Adenauer's time-table for ratification which had called for the measures to be placed before the Bundestag (upper house) for study next week and submitted to the Bundesrat (lower house) for first reading and debate Dec. 16.

PARIS (Reuters)—Socialist participation in Pierre Mendes-France's government in the immediate future was ruled out today after Socialist party secretary Guy Mollet presented the premier with his party's stiff terms for joining the cabinet.

Mollet notified Mendes-France of the decision taken at Thursday's Socialist congress during a 30-minute meeting with the premier.

The extraordinary party congress ruled that Socialists would take the six cabinet posts offered to them only if the premier accepted a full Socialist program.

Mendes-France told reporters after his meeting with Mollet that he will announce a reshuffle of his cabinet later today, but that no Socialists will be included. The reshuffle is expected to be minor.

The Socialist refusal to participate is seen here as one of the biggest blows to the government since it took office last June. Mendes-France had hoped to make sweeping changes, dramatically strengthening his government before his departure Saturday for the United States and Canada.

PARIS (Reuters)—Police clashed with 4,000 civil servants who massed in the Place de l'Opera in the centre of Paris today to demand higher pay.

18-YEAR IRON-LUNGER FRED SNITE DIES AT 44

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UP)—Fred B. Snite Jr., the cheerful "boiler kid" who lived more than 18 years in an iron lung, died in his sleep today while resting from a bridge game in the annual Florida State Championships Tournament.

He was 44.

Stricken by polio in China in 1936, Snite was married in 1939. His first daughter was born a year later. Other children have been added to the family since then.

Snite christened himself "de boiler kid." He made light of his steel "prison," and formerly mailed Christmas cards showing him in an iron lung plastered with travel-stickers from his world-wide travels.

It was on April 1, 1936, when only 26, that Snite was placed in a respirator at Peiping, China. He was stricken while on a world tour with his parents. His father, a wealthy manufacturer, expended $50,000 to bring him back to the States alive in a cumbersome respirator.

Adenauer Faces Cabinet Revolt On Rearmament

Further Study
By Commission

BONN, Germany (UP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's rebellious coalition cabinet refused today to approve the German rearmament agreements negotiated recently in Paris.

The deadlocked cabinet referred the measures—including the highly controversial agreement on the coal-steel Saarland border area—to a five-man cabinet commission for further study.

The deadlock developed suddenly and unexpectedly.

Adenauer had called his cabinet together to approve bills which were to have been submitted to the West German parliament for ratification of the measures which would restore German sovereignty, make her a member of a new west European union and rearm 500,000 West Germans for the west's defense against Communist aggression.

The cabinet ministers balked.

Disagreement on the measures was feared likely to upset Adenauer's time-table for ratification which had called for the measures to be placed before the Bundestag (upper house) for study next week and submitted to the Bundesrat (lower house) for first reading and debate Dec. 16.

Turned Down By Socialists

PARIS (Reuters)—Socialist participation in Pierre Mendes-France's government in the immediate future was ruled out today after Socialist party secretary Guy Mollet presented the premier with his party's stiff terms for joining the cabinet.

Mollet notified Mendes-France of the decision taken at Thursday's Socialist congress during a 30-minute meeting with the premier.

The extraordinary party congress ruled that Socialists would take the six cabinet posts offered to them only if the premier accepted a full Socialist program.

Mendes-France told reporters after his meeting with Mollet that he will announce a reshuffle of his cabinet later today, but that no Socialists will be included. The reshuffle is expected to be minor.

Has Meningitis

Progressive Conservative leader George Drew is suffering from an attack of meningitis but his recovery will be complete, party headquarters in Ottawa announced today. The 60-year-old politician was taken to hospital Thursday believed suffering from virus pneumonia. Party headquarters said laboratory tests have confirmed a diagnosis of meningococcus meningitis. Meanwhile Mr. Drew's engagements have been canceled for the next month, which means he will be unable to keep his scheduled speaking engagement in Victoria Dec. 3.

Two Crossword Fans Split

Record High Prize of $425

Two residents of southern Vancouver Island are better off to the extent of $212.50 each today as the result of submitting winning solutions in the Times weekly crosswords contest.

They are:
Hugh W. R. Lindsay, Cordova Bay P.O.
Mrs. M. Hunter, Jordan River.

They came up with perfect answers to puzzle No. 85 after crossworders had been trying for 14 weeks without success.

Full bonus prize for the puzzle was $425. Since both Mr. Lindsay and Mrs. Hunter are regular subscribers they divide the prize equally.

At press time Mrs. Hunter did not know she had won. She left her Jordan River home this morning for a shopping trip to Victoria and was not home when the Times phoned her.

Mr. Lindsay, a steam-fitter by trade, called it "just about the best news I've ever got at one time during my life."

He's been a crossword fan since the Times started the weekly puzzle more than a year and a half ago. Mr. Lindsay lives in a home he built himself off Sayward Road, Cordova Bay.

Wild Winds Sweep Britain; Rivers Rage; Shipping Hit

LONDON (Reuters)—Wild winds sweeping over Britain killed three persons, turned rivers into raging torrents and drove offshore shipping to shelter Thursday night and early today.

The wind reached hurricane force of 103 miles an hour around the rocky coast of the Orkney Islands off the far north of Scotland, and most parts of northern Scotland and northern Ireland had fierce gales.

Tidal warnings were issued along the coast of Lincolnshire in northeast England, where 300 persons were killed and 12,000 made homeless in Britain's worst floods two years ago. Police and emergency services stood by as the North Sea rose three feet above its expected level.

Floods caused the death of three persons trapped when their car was overturned by on-rushing water at a flooded ford near Lancaster.

Off the west coast, the 6,145-ton American cargo ship Magnolia State found shelter from stormy seas in Moelfre Bay. Eight vessels ranging from 300 to 1,000 tons took shelter in Torbay from English Channel gales.

Inland, the gales brought floods to northern England and south Scotland, making 100 persons homeless in the Scottish town of Creetown and leaving thousands of acres of farmland under water.

Racing floodwaters spilled over three square miles of the port city of Hull.

Heavy winds and driving rain coupled with the highest tide in 30 years forced the Humber and Hull Rivers out of their banks and across Hull. Waves two feet high swept along roads and into houses and factories as hastily erected sandbag defenses were washed away from the river banks.

No casualties were reported. Trucks and rowboats ferried people through the flooded streets but thousands were unable to get to work and many housewives were unable to get out to the shops.

Farther north, the port cities clustered around the Tyne and Clyde Rivers reported abnormally heavy rain and racing river waters.

Quebec 'Sweep Race Canceled

MANCHESTER, England (AP)—The Manchester November Handicap, final race of the English flat season, was cancelled today because of continued heavy rain.

The 1½-mile race was scheduled for Saturday. All bets on the race are void. Until several years ago an Irish sweepstakes was based on the November Handicap. Cancellations because of fog and rain switched the sweeps to the Cambridge-shire, which is run in October in Newmarket.

4 Albertans Die In Murder-Suicide

MUNDARE, Alta. (CP)—Police have described the fatal Remembrance Day shooting of four persons as murder-suicide resulting from a family quarrel over "religious and marital difficulties." One person was wounded.

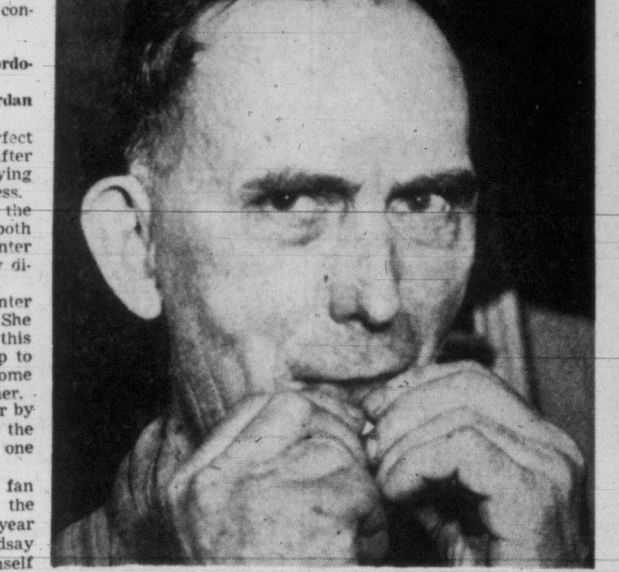

RCMP said Nick Lysakowsky, a 43-year-old movie exhibitor, shot himself to death after returning from an early-morning car trip during which he killed his parents-in-law and his teenage stepdaughter. His estranged wife was wounded.

Dead are Mr. and Mrs. John Baby, both in their 70s, and 16-year-old Susan Sadowski, a high school student.

Mary Sadowski, 43, is in "fairly good" condition in Edmonton hospital, 50 miles west of here. The woman separated from Lysakowsky in August after two months of marriage and reverted to the name of her husband by a previous marriage.

The death pattern as given by neighbors showed Lysakowsky intercepted Mary Sadowski while she was on her way to work in a nearby convent. He shot her three times and drove to the Baby home, where his wife lived, and shot Mr. and Mrs. Baby and Susan.

Lysakowsky, whose first wife died a year ago, returned home, telephoned the local police about what happened, and ended his life with the same revolver after ordering his 16-year-old son from the house.
